VICTORY TURNS TO GOOD USE

President's Great Popularity Gives Him Signal for Caution.

IMPORTANT POLICY

Mr. Roosevelt Warns His Party Against Recklessness in the Hour of Triumph.

TO TAKE UP TRUST QUESTION

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU, Room 10, Postal Building, WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.

Two questions are now uppermost in the public mind, since the indorsement at the polls of President Roosevelt by pluralities without a parallel in American politics:

What is to be the effect of this tremendous victory on the mind of the president in his general treatment of public questions, particularly those bearing on legislative affairs and foreign relations?

What is to be the policy of the administration with reference to labor and capital, and particularly with reference to the trusts and corporations and the Dingley tariff?

The effect of his victory has in no sense disturbed the president's poise. He has taken the result, of course, with the exultation of a healthy and courageous man. But there is not noticeable about him any exaltation which would indicate that his point of view has been disturbed by a great and unexpected windfall of good fortune. On the contrary, the election returns have had on the president a sobering effect. They have not deprived him of any of his high and genuine animal spirit, but they have brought him face to face with the great responsibilities with which the American people have invested him, by indorsing every act of his administration with a vote of more than the "first magnitude," and by electing a house of representatives with more than 100 majority.

President Sounds First Warning.

The president has been one of the very first of the party leaders to appreciate the danger which might come to the party from having such a great majority in the popular branch of congress. It is prone to make the party in general careless and reckless, a sure way of inviting party disaster. The president himself has been of the first to sound a warning. The statement on the results of the election made by William H. Taft, secretary of war, yesterday may be taken as indicative of the feelings of the president on this point. In this statement Mr. Taft took occasion to say that the danger of such a sweeping victory is that it may lead to the relaxing of the restraint that is more certain when the danger of a change is more probable. This statement was made by the secretary of war after he had a long conference with the president.

When members of congress arrive here to attend the opening of congress and call on the president they are likely to hear something on this point. They are also likely to hear something very much to the point in the message which the president will send to congress in December.

Will Legislate on Trusts.

Regarding the position of the president with reference to great combinations of capital it can be said that there has been no change in his previous attitude. It is altogether probable that at the session of congress legislation bearing on the trust question will be recommended. These recommendations will be made without reference to whether they are acceptable to the trusts or not. Their character is possibly not known even to the president at this time. They will largely depend on the nature of the report which will be made to the president within a short time by James R. Garfield, the head of the bureau of corporations of the department of commerce and labor.

Whatever legislation may be recommended will be in the direction of extending the control of the government over corporations engaged in interstate business. The trusts may take the position that this legislation is not for their good. The president takes the position that it is for their good and the trusts do not know it. But one thing is certain, whatever is sought to be accomplished by the president will be in the direction of strengthening the power of the government to interfere in behalf of the public, if such interference at any time becomes necessary.

LAWSON BEGINS FIGHT.

His Offer to Buy Pacific Mail Is Attack on Rockefeller and Harriman.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The offer of Thomas W. Lawson to buy 93,000 shares or more of Pacific Mail stock at 70, the present market price being 42, is, according to a friend, part of the general attack which Lawson has planned against the Rockefeller and Harriman interests.

"Mr. Lawson understands," said the gentleman, "that the Southern and Union Pacific railroads control the stock of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company. The profits accruing have gone to the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific combination, and the poor minority stockholders have been left out in the cold."

REPUBLICANS ALSO ELECT MISSOURI LEGISLATURE

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 10.—With seven counties still to be heard from at nightfall, the returns showed that Roosevelt's plurality in Missouri stood 15,755. Of the seven counties unheard from six went for Bryan in 1900. They are remote and sparsely settled. At the same time Folk's plurality for governor stood 34,882. Figures on the remainder of the Democratic ticket were still lacking. The Republicans will have a majority in the legislature on joint ballot of at least 14 and perhaps 20. This means the election of a Republican United States senator.

PARKER IN METROPOLIS UNNOTICED BY PUBLIC

Erstwhile Candidate Slips Into New York With the Same Hearty Laugh.

[BY PRIVATE WIRE TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Unnoticed by the general public and greeted only by a few acquaintances who chanced to meet him on his trip, Judge Parker slipped into the city today. Under his arm Judge Parker carried a book devoted to the subject of profitable farming. He was in a cheerful mood, and in chatting with the few friends he met on the train, his hearty laugh rang out as pleasantly as ever. Intimate friends say that all during the campaign he had no illusions regarding the result.

"Of course," he said, "I am going to return to the law business. I have several engagements under consideration, but I have made no decision yet. It may be that I shall first take a holiday trip, not for myself, for I don't feel the need of any, but for the benefit of Mrs. Parker."

PRESIDENT SENDS HIS PHOTO TO SCHOOLMA'AM

Mr. Roosevelt Appreciates Rebuke Miss Ida Galbraith Administered to Captain Hobson.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 10.—Miss Ida Galbraith, a teacher in the public schools of Columbia City, today received a letter from President Roosevelt and enclosing a photograph. Capt. Hobson spoke at Columbia City a few days ago and was very sarcastic in his utterances regarding the president. Miss Galbraith pushed her way into the crowd. Looking Hobson in the eye, she reproved him. Today she received the following note from the president:

"Washington, D. C., Nov. 7, 1904.

"To My Dear Miss Galbraith:

"Will you allow me, as a token of my appreciation, to enclose herewith my photograph?

"Sincerely yours,

"THEODORE ROOSEVELT."

BURNED WIFE'S CLOTHES TO KEEP HER FROM SHOW

Wife Resented Hubby's Act and Had Him Arrested for Destroying Property.

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

ST. PAUL, MINN., Nov. 10.—In order to break up the theater habit, which his wife had in a marked degree, R. A. Landrum, a telegraph operator in this city, took a bundle of her best clothes last night and incinerated them in the base burner.

When Mrs. Landrum came in from a neighborhood call to dress for the theater she found her pretty waist missing. Landrum admitted knowing the fate of the waist, and Mrs. Landrum became so enraged she called the police and had her husband arrested on a charge of malicious destruction of property. Today Landrum was placed under bonds to keep the peace.

ADDICKS NO NEARER UNITED STATES SENATE

WILMINGTON, DEL., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—For the fourth time John Edward Addicks has sought an election in vain. He swept the state handsomely for Roosevelt, elected his whole state ticket to office and lost the legislature. On joint ballot it consists of 21 Democrats, 22 Addicks Republicans and nine implacable anti-Addicks Republicans. This leaves him just about where he has been for eight years—almost elected to the United States senate.

TAFT AND HIS PARTY ARE FAST AGROUND

PENSACOLA, FLA., Nov. 10.—The cruiser Columbia, which is to convey Secretary of War Taft and his party to Panama, went ashore tonight in Pensacola harbor, and every available tugboat of the port is now on the scene endeavoring to pull the war vessel into deep water.

Babcock's Election Certain.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Late returns from Babcock's district indicate that he is elected beyond question. Secretary Bentley of the state central committee, who looked after Mr. Babcock's campaign, says there is no doubt that Babcock is safe with 240 plurality back of him.

PRICES OF STEEL WILL BE RAISED

Associations in the Various Lines Will Meet in New York Next Week.

MAY ASK LOWER FREIGHT RATE

All the associations controlling the price of steel are to meet in New York next Tuesday and continue in session until the whole list of prices has been revised to suit the better conditions which have arisen in the iron and steel markets. For the first time in over a year the associations meet during a period when the buying has assumed its old activity, and the market is a steadily rising one. The prospects are that the scale of prices determined upon next week will be those that will rule until well into the first quarter of the coming year.

The associations which are included in those to meet next week are the billet, bar, rail, structural, plate, wire and others. It is not expected that the meetings will end before the latter part of the week.

It is fairly certain that higher prices will be established in most of the lines. Billets cannot remain at the present basis of $19 50, Pittsburgh, under conditions in the pig iron market that have increased the price of Bessemer pig to $14 50 at the valley furnaces. The expected increase will be from $1 00 to $2 00 a ton, and $21 00 is the price most frequently mentioned as the one which would suit the conditions. The price may be even higher.

The rail situation is more complex. There has been much talk for a year of the reduction of rail prices to a point more commensurate with the price of billets, and even now $26 00 is frequently mentioned as the most probable price for standard sections for 1905. The improvement in the steel business, however, may change the method of equalizing rail and billet prices from a reduction in rails to an increase in billets. There will be strong opposition to a change in rail prices, but there will also be influential interests working to obtain a reduction.

The proposition may be put up to the railroads to grant a reduction in freight rates on steel if they wish a lower price for rails. Articles of iron and steel, excepting only those for export, are still paying a very high rate in which the railroads of the country made no decrease during the past year of depression.

In the other lines of steel the situation generally is one of marked improvement and higher prices are a possibility all around. At the meeting all the conditions will be discussed and until that time it is impossible to make accurate forecasts of the results.

SOUTHERN OPERATORS PREDICT $15 PIG IRON

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—This year's total production of all kinds of pig iron in the Alabama district is estimated at 1,500,000 tons, slightly below last year's total and a little above the total for 1902. Fifteen-dollar pig iron early in 1905 is now the prediction of southern operators. Foundry No. 2, which has steadily advanced from the low price of $8 75 a ton earlier in the year to $12 75, is being firmly held, and cannot be booked for delivery in 1905 in any quantity at that price.

Russian and Japanese Outposts Jocularly Signal Results of Shots to Each Other.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

MUKDEN, Nov. 10.—The Japanese today assumed the offensive on the left bank of the Hun river, and occupied three villages. The Russians, however, attacked, drove them out and again established their original lines of defense.

Vice Admiral Skrydloff arrived here today.

HUEN-SIEN (Ten miles south of Mukden)—Nov. 10.—Along the 80 miles constituting the front of the Russian army everything was quiet today except for occasional skirmishes and artillery duels on the center and left, where gunners fire occasionally for the sake of practice.

Sometimes outposts indulge in fusilades. When the Japanese jocularly display a white disk, indicating a miss, the Russian riflemen reply by raising a shirt on a bayonet.

The Japanese are industriously continuing work under the cover of darkness, digging immense ditches into which to deflect the water of the Shakhe river.

KILL TWO MEN; HOLD UP TOWN

Brothers Avenge Death of Constable Jackson in West Virginia.

FEAR ONE DETECTIVE

Flee from Bravest Man in State. Posses Search Mountains for Them.

COUNTY SHERIFF ONE VICTIM

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Nov. 10.—Two men were shot to death at Montgomery, Fayette county, this morning as the result of the killing of Constable W. A. Jackson by Policeman Will Elliott late last night.

Harvey Jackson and two other brothers of W. A. Jackson armed themselves and started out to "clean up" the entire police force of the town. The Jackson brothers are noted to be desperate men and when the officials were notified of their coming they went into hiding. Harvey Jackson came into Montgomery heavily armed and a telephone message was sent to Sheriff Daniels to come to Montgomery at once, as bloodshed was certain. Daniels boarded a train at Fayette and reached Montgomery at 10 o'clock this morning. Just as he stepped from the train he saw Harvey Jackson lounging around the station not more than 50 feet away. Without drawing his revolver the sheriff walked over to Jackson and placing his hand on Jackson's shoulder told him to leave the town under penalty of being arrested. Jackson, without a word, jerked a revolver from his pocket and killed the sheriff.

Prominent Citizen Killed.

John Rolf, a prominent citizen of the town, was standing nearby and had witnessed the talk between Daniels and Jackson. Throwing up his hands he advanced toward Jackson to remonstrate with him and to help Daniels. Jackson, without letting the revolver go from his hand, turned and shot Rolf dead. Then reloading his revolver and pulling another from his pocket, he brandished them in the air and defied any one in the town to take him. The other Jackson boys came into town and met their brother immediately after the shooting. For half an hour the three men paraded the streets firing revolvers and defying the town. The people were in a panic and hid in their cellars. The streets were deserted and not an official dared make his appearance.

In the meantime Detective Harrison Ash, who lives near Montgomery and is reputed to be the bravest man in West Virginia, was telephoned for. Without hesitation he mounted a horse and galloped at full speed for the town. When he was seen down the roadway from Montgomery by the Jacksons, they started on a run for the mountains nearby and escaped in the woods. After Ash had driven them to the mountains, the citizens plucked up courage and swarmed into the streets heavily armed. A message was sent to Fayette, a special train ordered and more than 50 citizens left for Montgomery armed with Winchester rifles and shotguns and revolvers.

Posse Beats the Woods.

A posse of 200 men was quickly organized and under the leadership of Ash and other police they started beating the woods for the Jacksons. All afternoon the posse ranged the woods on the mountainside, but were unable to find any traces of the brothers. The latter will never surrender, as the entire county is aroused against them, and if captured a triple lynching is certain. On the other hand they are known to be three of the most desperate men in the vicinity and will not hesitate to make a fight against overwhelming odds. The search is being kept up tonight and more people are joining the hunt ever hour.

The brothers cannot escape, as their retreat toward the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad is cut off, and they are too well known to dare approach any place in the vicinity of Fayette for food, as they would be recognized.

Sheriff Daniels would have retired from office January 1. He was widely known and popular throughout the county. He was worth $50,000.

The killing of Constable Jackson by Policeman Elliott was the result of a heated argument about politics, the tax reform question in particular.

A posse was organized here tonight to arrest Charles Blake, a young man who attempted to assassinate a policeman, and who has barricaded himself in a stable eight miles south of the city, and defies the officers to take him. They will not reach his hiding place until 4 o'clock tomorrow morning.

CONSPIRACY IS THE ACCUSATION

Aldermen Are Arrested for Settling Cases Against Resort Keepers.

NEW LINE OF INQUIRY

District Attorney Stewart Opens Another Possible Avenue of Graft.

SERIOUS CHARGES ARE MADE

District Attorney Stewart has taken a hand in the matter of aldermen permitting suits to be entered before them against women of the lower avenues and then allowing them to be settled upon the payment of money without being held for court. By his direction County Detective Robinson made informations yesterday against two aldermen and a number of others, charging them with conspiracy. The cases promise to result in some astonishing disclosures in this line.

The aldermen under arrest are Benjamin C. Barton of the Seventh ward and Isaac Levy of the Eighth ward. Coupled with Barton in the information are A. E. Aronson, his clerk; Peter Auslander, his constable; Joseph Swartz, an upholsterer doing business on the hill; H. J. Skidmore, Charles Shreinert and William Fitzsimmons, who acted as witnesses in the case. With Levy are named Lewis Harris, his constable, and Joseph Abrams, alias Joseph Miller, who acted as the prosecuting witness. The informations are made before Alderman Toole.

Details of Alleged Conspiracy.

The specific charge made against the men is that the aldermen conspired with the men named with them to extort money from Laura Woods, proprietress of an establishment at 424 Third avenue. It is claimed that informations were made against her for keeping a disorderly house, for illegal liquor selling, for selling to minors and for selling on Sunday. To Levy she claims to have paid $11 to settle the case, and to Barton she says she paid $33 90. It was explained to her that this money was paid for costs.

The inside of the case came out when the Woods woman related to a man from whom she bought supplies the fact of her having been arrested and taken before the aldermen and settling the cases. He urged her to relate the facts to the district attorney, and she finally did so. The informations are the result.

Date Was Not Important.

The Woods woman, until two months ago, kept a house at 429 Second avenue. She moved to Third avenue September 1. Notwithstanding this fact, the information made against her in one case charged her with selling liquor at the Second avenue house October 16. When she complained to Clerk Aronson that she was unjustly accused, as she did not live in the Second avenue house at the date mentioned, he said, she asserts, that it made no difference. They had her anyhow and she would have to settle or go to court.

Swartz, who made the information against the Woods woman before Barton, is an upholsterer and had done some work for her. When she settled with Alderman Barton, she says, it was explained to her that part of the money was for the settlement of Swartz' claim against her for this work. She claimed to have paid Swartz' collector for the work, but Swartz insisted that he had never received the money.

Swartz has made several informations against women of this character recently. One of these was against Sallie Hutchinson of Allegheny. He had attempted to collect a bill from her which she disputed. He entered suit before Alderman Toole and secured a judgment, but she took advantage of the exemption act.

Unable to Make a Case.

He then entered informations against her for illegal liquor selling, but at the hearing was unable to produce evidence and the woman was discharged. It is alleged that a number of other cases against women of this class have been entered before Levy and Barton and settled without a hearing.

County Detective Robinson said last evening that these cases were but the first of a number which would probably be entered against aldermen of the city who have been making a practice of this kind of business. In nearly every instance the witnesses against the women are men connected with the office of the alderman before whom the information is made. District Attorney Stewart expects to prove that in the cases of Barton and Levy the men charged with them were given money to go to the Woods house and buy liquor, so an information could be made against her. He proposes to break up this practice.

The accused aldermen both appeared before Alderman Toole last evening and gave bail for a hearing. Warrants for the others named in the information will be served today.

DAWSON ELECTED GOVERNOR BY ABOUT 5,000 MAJORITY

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Complete returns from almost every county in the state and careful estimates on the others yet to hear from give W. M. O. Dawson, Republican nominee for governor, a majority of 4,750. Official returns from estimated counties may raise this plurality a little, but it is hardly probable that it will go above 5,000, although the Republican state committee is still claiming that it will exceed 9,000.

PRESIDENTIAL VOTE CLOSE IN MARYLAND

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10.—The official returns received here up to a late hour tonight indicate that the vote for the presidential candidates last Tuesday was very close—possibly 100 on either side. MR. ROOSEVELT WILL VISIT FAIR

The President Accepts an Invitation to Go to St. Louis November 26.

SPECIAL PROGRAM ARRANGED

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.

President Roosevelt will attend the exposition at St. Louis before it closes, and so informed a delegation from that city tonight. He will be present during the closing days of the fair and has accepted an invitation for Saturday, November 26. The St. Louis delegation which invited him arrived at the White House this evening, and consisted of Mayor Rolla Wells, William H. Thompson, treasurer of the Exposition company; Corwin H. Spencer, vice president, and L. D. Dozier of the executive committee.

The president received the delegation in his office, and after consulting his engagement book, found that it would be possible for him to be in St. Louis November 26. The arrangements were quickly made and that day will be known as president's day at the fair. According to the present arrangement he will leave here at midnight on Thanksgiving and arrive in St. Louis early on the morning of November 26. He will spend Saturday at the fair, where appropriate ceremonies will be held for president's day, and Sunday will be spent at St. Louis. In the evening he will leave for Washington.

President Roosevelt has been anxious to go to St. Louis to see the fair ever since its opening. However, the presidential campaign impelled him to remain in the east. The invitation to Mr. Roosevelt, it is understood, is comprehensive enough to include any other persons whom he may wish to have with him, and some of the members of the cabinet are likely to accompany him.

The members of the committee are highly elated with the promptness with which Mr. Roosevelt decided to visit the fair. They feel that his attendance will have an excellent effect and that the day of his visit will be one of the banner days, if not the banner day of the exposition's history.

MR. ROOSEVELT'S VICTORY COST STEWART AN EYE

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 10.—Glenn Stewart of Pittsburgh, a Yale freshman, was operated on late today and his left eye was removed, everything that surgical skill could do to obviate the necessity having failed.

Stewart was one of a company of students living in "Freshman Row," who were celebrating President Roosevelt's re-election early Wednesday morning. The chemicals with which Stewart was experimenting to make a colored light exploded in his face.

Stewart's mother arrived here tonight from Pittsburgh.

WORLD'S IMPOSING FIGURE.

Mexican Papers So Speak of Mr. Roosevelt—People Approve His Policies.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 10.—The result of the American election has been much discussed in political circles.

The papers generally speak of President Roosevelt as the imposing figure on the international stage of the world, of cosmopolitan education and wide and varied accomplishments, and as an unique figure in the long line of American presidents.

The Mexican Herald says:

"Definitely and in an unmistakable manner the American electorate stamps its approval on the imperialistic and expansionist policy of the dominant party, the mighty Union now commits itself to the retention of all the insular territory acquired from Spain in both oceans; to the rapid pushing to completion of the Panama canal; to the building up of a great navy and to the movement for strengthening the military arm of the government."

THEY LOOKED INVITING.

Wagonload of Bedclothes Appealed to Cold Foreigners Near Hays Borough.

Bruce Kelly, driver for a Homestead furniture house, was assaulted yesterday afternoon by a gang of Italians and would have suffered severely but for assistance that came to him in the nick of time.

Kelly had a load of blankets, comfortables and quilts which looked inviting on a cold, drizzly day like yesterday. He passed a settlement of Italians, near Hays borough. The foreigners began to pull the goods from the wagon and when Kelly jumped down and sought to prevent the robbery he was assaulted. It was near the railroad tracks and railroad hands on a slow moving freight train saw the trouble Kelly was in. They jumped off and went to his assistance and beat the Italians off, but not before the stock of goods in the wagon had been sadly depleted.

ROBBED FIVE HOUSES.

Braddock Police Think Bad Boys Did the Work, Not Men.

Some time between midnight and dawn yesterday five houses in Braddock were robbed. The police believe it was the work of boys and not of the gang that robbed the house of the chief of police and that of the seargeant of police and shot and wounded a man who caught the gang in his house about a week ago.

The houses entered are on Talbot street and are occupied by Mrs. Charlotte Lotzman, J. K. Fisher, John Sibert, Frederick Hains and Robert Finnin. The thieves stole plated ware, some cash, clothing and eatables, ransacking the lower floors of all the houses, but not venturing upstairs.

SUES AGED SUITOR FOR BIG DAMAGES

Former Pittsburgh Girl Wants $25,000 from Greene County Capitalist.

CHARGES BREACH OF PROMISE

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

Miss Idalian C. Hayes, formerly of Pittsburgh, is the plaintiff in a suit for breach of promise against Henry Clay Sayers, at least 40 years her senior. Attorney George Washington Albright told the story of the courtship of the veteran and the maid, beginning with the statement that she demanded $25,000 damages. They met at the county fair at Waynesburg, Pa., in September, 1897, where she was making a demonstration of tea for a New York house. He often called on her at her mother's house, finally proposing marriage in 1898. She accepted and they were to be married within the year. Things drifted until 1899, when he proposed, the lawyer said, that they go to Kansas to marry secretly. Miss Hayes assented and he bought tickets for two. But a quarrel resulted at Union station, Pittsburgh, and she went to her home, then in Pittsburgh.

He made up and came to see her in 1901, when she had removed to New York. Again he proposed secret marriage, and when she insisted on having her sister and a young man as witnesses he rebelled, and finally told her he couldn't marry her legally, as he had a wife and family already.

Managed Waynesburg Fair.

Miss Hayes was called as the first witness. She testified that her aged suitor was one of the managers of the Waynesburg Fair association when she met him. She offered in evidence a lot of notes from Henry Clay Sayers to her making theater appointments when he happened to be in Pittsburgh.

"In the latter part of April he proposed," said the plaintiff.

The veteran of the civil war bent forward, making a sounding board of his hand back of his ear and peering at the girl in brown, perhaps 40 years his junior.

"Well, what did he say?" asked Justice Scott.

"Why, he asked me to marry him," said the girl in much astonishment that her "conclusion" was not accepted.

"Did he give you any token of your engagement?" Mr. Albright asked.

"Oh, yes; this ring," she replied, picking the symbol out of her shopping bag.

"My dear, loving Idalian," her lawyer read from a letter of May, 1898, from the veteran, who continued, "Dear, sweet Idalian, I love you; I can't help loving you; I want to love you and I'm going to love you."

Then the letter told about a ring he had bought her, with "four fine opals and sixteen diamonds," which he would bring next time he visited Pittsburgh. After that was the news that the defendant had bought some more stock in the fair and sold 100 bushels of wheat for $112, and the letter closed with "your ring is a beauty, with the inscription 'H. S. and I. H.,' from Henry Clay Sayers to his own dear girl."

Also a Little Cautious.

Other letters had such expressions as "pretty dear, Ida, I wish you were my own, don't you, dear Ida?" But the aged courtier was cautious, too, for he wrote, "I l— you," "your d— friend," and the like.

The jurymen were permitted to examine the ring one by one, while Miss Hayes gazed at them with great dark eyes.

"Mr. Sayers told me he was worth about $70,000," said the young woman, "and that at his father's death he would come into about $250,000 more. I was employed in Morgantown, W. Va., when, in June, 1898, Mr. Sayers asked me to give up my position and come to him.

"He came to Morgantown after me, but when he said he was not going to introduce me yet as his future wife I would not go with him, and he explained that if he told his folks he was going to marry out of their sphere he would be disinherited. So I went to Youngstown, O., to prepare to go to school, for I didn't feel that I was fitted to fill the position which I must fill as Mr. Sayers' wife—I lacked polish." Miss Hayes smiled in a pretty way when she said this.

Up to this time not a word had been said about ages, and Justice Scott relieved the bursting curiosity of the audience by asking her age.

"I was 22 when we became engaged," said Miss Hayes, "and Mr. Sayers told me he was either 58 or 59."

More letters were read, in which the grizzled war veteran sighed like a boyish Romeo and spoke dutifully of his paterfamilias.

Poetry Was Sentimental.

"There was poetry in some of the letters?" asked the attorney.

"Yes, it was original and sentimental," Miss Hayes replied.

"He met you in Pittsburgh in October, 1899?"

"He had written me that we were going on to Kansas to get married and when I learned his intentions I got angry. Later on Mr. Sayers apologized to me and after that things went on in the same old way."

"After that you came to New York?"

"Yes, I had begun teaching and gave entertainments. I first resided in Fifty-second street, but afterward went to live at No. 229 West Twenty-third street, with my sister."

"Sayers came to see you there?"

"Yes, he wanted me to go with him to Philadelphia and get married there."

"Did you consent to that?"

"No; I told him I wanted to be married here, so that my sister could be present at the ceremony."

"During the time of your engagement to Mr. Sayers did you have any business offers made to you?"

"I had several offers to go on the stage, but refused them because Mr. Sayers said that any public appearance by me would separate us. He also wrote me to that effect."

"Did Sayers ever give you photographs of himself?"

"Yes, and we had our pictures taken together at Grant's tomb."

Cross-examined, Miss Hayes was first asked if she did not consider the day of the engagement an important one, and she answered that she did.

Hesitated on the Proposal.

"And the day in June, 1901, was the first day that Sayers told you he was married?" asked the lawyer for the defendant.

"Absolutely it was," answered the fair witness.

"Did you accept Mr. Sayers' proposal of marriage the first time it was made to you?"

"I did not. It was on the second occasion that I accepted the offer."

"Mr. Sayers suggested a secret marriage to you?"

"Yes, on two occasions. One in Kansas and the other in Philadelphia."

"After the quarrel at the Pittsburgh station you realized that you had made a mistake as to the way you were to travel?"

"Yes, but he always treated me lovely. I went with him to Washington, Niagara Falls, Toronto, Cleveland and other places besides this city and on those trips he always treated me with the utmost propriety."

"You remember a letter in which the name Clem appeared?"

"Yes."

"Did you know that she was Mrs. Sayers?"

"I thought she was his sister."

"Did you ever sign an assumed name to your letters so as to conceal your identity from Mrs. Sayers?"

"How could I, when I did not know there was a Mrs. Sayers. I generally signed myself 'Ida,' but I may have signed 'Cameron,' because that is what the 'C' in my name stands for."

"The engagement was concealed from Mr. Sayers' family and also from your own?"

"It was."

Quarreled With Her Mother.

"Sayers visited your home in Pittsburgh?"

"Yes; and my sister, noticing the disparity in our ages, objected to his coming to the house. My mother became involved in the quarrel."

"You left your home because Mr. Sayers was not allowed to visit you there?"

"Yes. He advised me to leave the house, and at the time I was supporting myself demonstrating tea. That was in February, 1898."

Mrs. M. Hayes, mother of the plaintiff, the second witness, told about reproving her daughter because of her going with Sayers, and said that as the result of these quarrels the young woman left home. She admitted that she had never made any inquiries about Sayers, but understood that he was at the head of the Waynesburg fair, and that both he and his father were widowers.

"Did you not know that he described himself to be your daughter's uncle?" the witness was asked.

"I did not," answered Mrs. Hayes.

"Did you not say he was old enough to be a grandfather?"

"I did, but he denied it when asked by my grandchild."

"Did your daughter tell you that she would go with Sayers whether he was married or not?"

"No. During the quarrel she became very angry and left the house. I did not know at first where she was going, but afterward found that she was living in Allegheny."

The trial of the suit will be continued tomorrow.

LAND MINE EXPLODES, KILLING 700 RUSSIANS

Japanese Siege Guns Also Set Fire to Military Warehouse in Port Arthur.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS CABLE TO THE GAZETTE.]

CHEFOO, Nov. 10.—Etse mountain, according to Chinese, 120 of whom arrived here today from Port Arthur, is proving a costly obstacle to the Japanese. On the mornings of November 5 and 6 fierce assaults on the position were made by the Japanese, who were repulsed. During the second assault a shell, soaring over the other hills from Pailchuang, dropped on Etse mountain and exploded other mines.

The Russians were holding the trenches on the boundary of mined section. Six or seven hundred were killed. The Japanese not having reached the place, were unhurt.

Etse mountain owes the best part of its strength to the peculiar topography of the surrounding country, which prevents a direct artillery fire and does not enable the Japanese to advance trenches with the success evident elsewhere.

TOKYO, Nov. 10.—A report from Gen. Nogi's headquarters before Port Arthur, dated November 8, says: "The enemy's military warehouse, situated in the northern part of Port Arthur, was bombarded November 6 with heavy siege and naval guns. The bombardment caused a conflagration."

FUGITIVE TURNED DESPERADO.

Escaped Prisoner from Morganza Arrested for Burglary.

William Feldman, an escaped prisoner from Morganza, held up Mrs. John Cohan of McKees Rocks yesterday with a revolver, ransacked the house and made his escape. He was captured later by Chief of Police Grogan and Assistant Chief Rider and will be taken back to Morganza today.

Feldman had been hanging about Cohan's cigar store for several days. He escaped from Morganza about a week ago. Yesterday Mrs. Cohan asked him to help her move some furniture. A gold watch was lying on a bureau and Feldman slipped it into his pocket. Mrs. Cohan caught him in the act and demanded the watch. He then drew a revolver and threatened to kill her, after which he ransacked the house, taking a number of pieces of jewelry, valued, with the watch, at about $100. He is 21 years of age.

A constable serving papers upon borough officials gathered for council meeting surprised Avalon people last night. Council instructed Solicitor Charles F. Lang to bring suit against corporations which refused to pay a tax upon their poles located in the borough. A. E. Campbell asked council to provide a combination hook, ladder and chemical wagon and to offer a reward for conviction of persons sending in false alarms.

COLORADO REPUBLICANS TO CONTEST EVERYTHING

Four Denver Election Officials Under Arrest, Charged With Gross Frauds.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS TO THE GAZETTE.]

DENVER, COL., Nov. 10.—Four election officials were brought before the supreme court today charged with causing the lights to be extinguished at the polling place where they were serving, long enough to substitute fraudulent Democratic votes for Republican ballots, properly cast, and which at the time were spread out upon a table preparatory to being counted. The hearing is set for next Monday.

At a meeting of Republican candidates and party leaders today, it was decided to begin immediately a contest for the places of all the Democrats elected in Colorado on the face of the returns. An effort will be made to seat all the Republicans from the governor down. The matter will be carried into the courts on the claim that the successful Democrats were elected by glaring frauds in Denver.

Gov. Peabody concedes his defeat. Alva Adams' majority over Peabody in the city and county of Denver is 5,071 and in the entire state about 10,500. "On the face of the returns Adams is elected," said Republican State Chairman Fairley, "but the official count or a contest may change it to Peabody."

CZAR PREDICTS WAR WILL UNITE EMPIRE

LOVITSCH, RUSSIA, Nov. 10.—Emperor Nicholas met with an enthusiastic reception today on his arrival here to inspect the troops. Receiving a deputation of nobles the emperor declared his emphatic belief that the bad times would only serve to unite the empire in bonds of brotherhood.

Monessen Will Annex Wireton.

MONESSEN, Nov. 10.—(Special.)—The ordinance annexing Wireton as a part of the Third ward of Monessen passed the borough council tonight. The ordinance gives Burgess A. N. Shuster, Clerk Daniel McMahon and President of Council W. F. Rumbaugh authority to enter into a contract to pay the Standard Land and Improvement Company a yearly rental of $1,700 for the use of sewers. At the end of five years the sewer system is to become the property of the borough. A. B. Scott filed objections, questioning the legality of the council's proceedings. It is said the matter will be carried into the courts.

Butler Feels Result of Election.

BUTLER, Nov. 10.—(Special.)—One of the first results of Tuesday's Republican victory is that the Standard Steel Car works have put their wooden car shops on night turn, and are employing 300 additional men in their steel car department. The factory has booked enough orders in the last month to keep it running nearly a year at the present capacity. Approximately 2,000 men are at work.

Billiard Cue Was Effective.

During a fight in a pool room on Wylie avenue, near Sixth avenue, last night, Thomas Bell, a negro, was driven from the place by the proprietor, who used a billiard cue with telling effect. Bell pulled a knife when he reached the pavement and started back after the proprietor. Officer Delehenty saw him draw the knife, reached Bell just as he was about to attack the proprietor, and after a struggle disarmed and arrested him.

WILL DISMEMBER SHIPYARD PLANTS

Charles M. Schwab Has Plan to Turn Out Men-of-War Complete.

SEVERAL WORKS TO BE SOLD

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Herald Building, Herald Square.
NEW YORK, Nov. 10.

Definite statements were made today that Charles M. Schwab, the controlling interest in the reorganized United States Shipbuilding Company, has formulated a policy which provides for the dismemberment of several important shipbuilding plants belonging to the unfortunate United States Shipbuilding Company, still in the hands of James Smith, Jr., the receiver.

It is proposed to sell at least four and possibly five of the shipbuilding concerns when the reorganization of the bankrupt company is completed. This fact was brought to light today when an emphatic denial was made of a report from the west that the rejuvenated shipyard company was contemplating a combination with the American Shipbuilding Company, engaged in the construction of lake vessels.

If Mr. Schwab's plans are carried into effect, the shipyard business, which was largely concentrated when the United States Shipbuilding Company was formed, will revert into the hands of individuals more or less familiar with the trade. Friends of Mr. Schwab stated that he was wholly unfamiliar with the shipbuilding business and that he did not intend to enter it on an extensive scale, when the Bethlehem Steel and Shipbuilding Company, the reorganized United States Shipbuilding Company, was finally launched.

Present plans of the Schwab management, as outlined in Wall street today, will provide for the re-sale of the Bath iron works, Bath, Me.; the Crescent Shipyard Company, Elizabethport, N. J.; Canda Manufacturing Company, Hyde Windless Company, Bath, Me., and the S. L. Moore & Sons Company, Elizabethport, N. J. Mr. Smith has frequently postponed his sale of some of these properties because he was unable to obtain satisfactory bids.

Other properties which belonged to the United States Shipbuilding Company, but have been sold under the order of the court at receivership sales, are the Harlan & Hollingsworth of Wilmington, Del., and the Union iron works of San Francisco. These properties, which are engaged in the manufacture of various branches of the iron trade with which Mr. Schwab is familiar, in addition to the construction of ships, it is now planned, shall be kept intact and under the control of the reorganized shipbuilding company.

Mr. Schwab's reasons for maintaining control of the Union iron works of San Francisco lie in his belief that when in effective operation the Bethlehem Steel Company necessitates the operation of plants equipped for turning out a battleship complete and fully armed.

CLAIM CHECK WAS FORGED THAT FAMILY MIGHT LIVE

W. C. Streat, Learning That Warrant Is Out for His Arrest, Goes to Central Station and is Locked Up.

Under circumstances which have awakened more sympathy than censure, W. C. Streat, aged 30, and married, is a prisoner at the Central police station on the charge of larceny and forgery. The warrant for his arrest was issued at the instance of O. C. Crane, cashier, of a bank in Preston county, W. Va.

Detectives Cole and Hagan are in charge of the case. Streat's former home is at Frostburg, Md., but his mother-in-law lives at 2403 Penn avenue and he and his wife came there last Sunday. He secured a position as a stationary engineer at one of the Penn avenue mills. When the warrant was issued his home was located and the detectives called there yesterday, but found that he was at work. His wife said that she knew what they wanted and that Streat would not evade arrest. Last evening he presented himself at Central station and was locked up.

It is stated that out of the $75 realized from the check for $125, he paid a doctor bill of $30, other outstanding bills of $10, and with the balance bought food for himself and his family.

At the station when he was locked up he said that this was the first night he had been away from his wife since he was married. An effort will be made to settle the matter without further prosecution.

He was an active member of the old Duquesne volunteer fire company of Pittsburgh. He is survived by a sister, Miss Lizzie Johnston, of Wilmot street.

Mrs. Hugh Y. Brady Is Dead.

Mrs. Martha Brady, wife of Dr. Hugh Y. Brady, died of heart failure at the family home in Ohio Pyle at 8:30 last evening. Mrs. Brady is survived by a number of relatives in Pittsburgh. Funeral services will be held at St. Vincent's archabbey at Beatty station, near Latrobe, Pa., at 10 a. m. tomorrow.

Charles F. Spang Buried.

The remains of Charles Frederick Spang, one of the founders of the Spang, Chalfant & Co. works in Etna, were interred in the family plot in Allegheny cemetery yesterday morning. MAKING ANOTHER POSTAL INQUIRY

Alleged Fraud in the Railway Mail Service Is Being Investigated.

EVERY SPOT MUST BE CLEAN

THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE BUREAU.
Room 10, Postal Building.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10.

A new investigation of the postoffice department is now under way, directed against the railway mail service. Half a dozen railway mail contracts are now before the department of justice for examination as to their legality, and an investigation of charges of collusion by government officials, some of whom are supposed to be in congress.

President Roosevelt ordered this investigation before the death of Postmaster General Payne, but the fact that inquiry has been going on for nearly two months did not become known until today. The report of the department of justice will be made to the president, who will take up the matter with Postmaster General Wynne for whatever action developments may show to be necessary.

Meanwhile Mr. Wynne is determined to have every suspected spot in the department cleaned up. It is Mr. Wynne's intention to transfer the division of postoffice inspectors from the fourth assistant's office to the office of the postmaster general. Other changes contemplated place all of the letter carriers in one bureau, together with all postoffice clerks not immediately connected with the department at Washington.

Mr. Wynne has ordered a further investigation of certain contracts in the supply division. It has been reported to him that perhaps $30,000 can be saved on twine alone, and experiments are being made to find out if this can be done. Mr. Wynne says if it is found such a saving can be made he will not hesitate to break contracts now in force.

One reform likely to follow in the railroad department applies to the method of weighing mails on which to base a price to be paid to the railroads. This is done once in four years for a short time, and on this basis a four-years' contract is made. It has been charged that mails were increased during these periods by collusion between postoffice officials and the railroad companies.

He Couldn't Keep Order.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 10.—Gov. Chepelewsky of Vitebsk, has been superceded for his failure to preserve order during the mobilization. Gen. Schautlotou, vice governor of Kovno, will succeed him.

ECZEMA ON LITTLE GIRL

Sleepless Nights for Mother and Awful Suffering of Child.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Had Given up All Hope of Ever Making Any Cure.

"My little girl has been suffering for two years or more from eczema, and during that time I could not get a night's sleep, as her ailment was very severe.

"I had tried so many remedies and spent much money, deriving no benefit, I had absolutely given up all hope of making any cure. But as a last resort I was persuaded to try a set of the Cuticura remedies, and to my great delight a marked change was manifested from the first application. I gave the child a bath with Cuticura Soap, using a soft piece of muslin cloth. This I did twice a day, each time following with the Cuticura Ointment, and at the same time gave the Resolvent, according to directions. One box of the Ointment and two bottles of the Resolvent, together with the Soap, effected a permanent cure. I submit this for publication if you desire, hoping it will add to your success and assist so many thousands of sufferers in curing themselves." MRS. I. B. JONES, ADDINGTON, IND. T.

The first step in the treatment of the chronic forms is to remove the scales and crusts and soften the skin, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap. The scalp, ears, elbows, hands, ankles and feet will require frequently a thorough soaking in order to penetrate the thickened skin and crusts with which these parts are often covered. Dry carefully, and apply Cuticura Ointment, lightly at first, and where advisable spread it on pieces of soft cloth and bind in place. Take the Resolvent, pills, or liquid, in medium doses. Do not use cold water in bathing, and avoid cold, raw winds.

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Resolvent, 25c. (in form of Chocolate Coated Pills, 25c. per vial of 60), Ointment, 50c., Soap, 25c. Depots: London, 27 Charterhouse Sq.; Paris, 5 Rue de la Paix; Boston, 137 Columbus Ave. Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Sole Proprietors. Send for "How to Cure Eczema."

SAY RULES ARE NOT OPERATIVE

Citizens Make Claim That City Committee Has Nothing to Do With County Primaries.

FIGHT TO BE MADE ON LENNOX

Citizens party leaders are claiming that the new rules adopted by the Republican city committee, so far as the qualification of a voter is concerned, will not be operative in the June primaries. They base their claim on the allegation that the June primaries are under the control of the Republican county committee.

The city rules fix the qualification of a Republican voter as one who has voted the whole Republican ticket at the last two preceding regular elections. This would mean that in June the voter will have to show that he supported the whole ticket in November, 1904, and February, 1905. The county rules, as they now stand, provide that anyone who voted the Republican ticket at the last preceding national or state election can participate in the primaries.

The Citizens say that they will be able to prove that the city rules are not in force when it comes to a county primary and that those who voted the national or state ticket can participate in the June primaries. The rules of the county in two places at least recognize the right of the city committee to conduct the primaries. The first is in the election of county committeemen. Rule 1 reads:

What the Rule Provides.

The Republican county executive committee of Allegheny county shall consist of one member from each election district within the county who shall be a duly qualified Republican voter (as provided in section 5 of rule 2) of the district for which he is elected, and whose term of office shall be for a period of one year or until his successor shall be elected. Provided, however, that the members of the committee from the election districts in the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny shall be elected in accordance with the rules of the Republican party organization of said cities.

Section 5 of rule 2 cited above provides that any one who voted the Republican ticket at the last preceding national or state election is eligible to become a county committeeman or to vote in the primaries.

In section 2 of rule 2 of the county committee the right of the Pittsburgh and Allegheny organizations to conduct the primaries with their primary election officers is recognized.

Joseph H. Vitchestaln, manager of the Young Men's Republican club, the organization formed by the Citizens for the purpose of making a fight in the primaries, said yesterday that the club would within the next 48 hours decide whether the courts will be asked to pass upon the validity of the new city rules.

Under the new rules there will be at least 10,000 voters in Pittsburgh whose right to participate in the primaries may be questioned. The returns of Tuesday's election show that about that number of electors, through ignorance or design, failed to vote for the state and county tickets.

Mayor W. B. Hays said yesterday that the large majority in the county was secured by many Democrats voting the Republican ticket in order to qualify for the primaries.

"We made Republicans out of a lot of them," he said. When told that the new rule would bar them unless they also voted the Republican ticket in February, the mayor said:

"That is true, if the rule stands."

The Republican leaders deny that many Democrats voted the Republican ticket.

Will Fight Lennox.

Effort is to be made to prevent Snowden G. Lennox, Republican select councilman-elect from the Seventeenth ward, from taking his seat. The Citizens are preparing to fight him on the ground that he has not lived within the city for five years, as is required by the city charter. This question was raised when he was nominated. Mr. Lennox then said that he was prepared to prove that he had been a resident of the city for the specified time. The Citizens claim that until a year ago he resided in Montrose.

Frank P. Booth, the Republican candidate for common councilman in the Twenty-second ward, has issued a statement in answer to the claim made by J. S. Wightman that Booth was nominated at a "star chamber" session. Mr. Booth says that notice of the meeting was given in the papers and by sending out 300 postal cards. There were about 100 people present. Mr. Booth's opponent is Dr. J. O. Bockstoce. The men who named him are keeping in the background. He is the candidate of the Citizens under the name of "Independents." His backers are John F. Steel, city treasurer, and President Wightman of select council.

The returns for the Sixth legislative district have been totaled by Frank Bigham. Roosevelt had 15,610 votes and Parker 3,571; Republican plurality, 12,039. Parker carried two of the 128 precincts in the district. In the First of Chartiers he had 16 and Roosevelt 14 votes and in the Second of Lower St. Clair Parker had 117 and Roosevelt 72 votes.

The election returning board for the county was organized at noon yesterday in common pleas court No. 1 and the work of computing Tuesday's vote began before Judges James R. Macfarlane and Elliott Rodgers. The clerks are D. B. Warden, Ernest E. Jones, T. O. Kirker, J. N. Radcliffe, E. J. Fagan, R. W. McKee, Alfred Kerr, Christ Miller, S. W. McElhenny, W. P. Sheraden, Nathan Byron, Nicholas Messner, E. W. Pabst, James S. Kerr, Alexander Lindsay, W. J. McDonald, H. O. C. Ochmler, Thomas Fording and George W. Richards. At 4 o'clock, when court adjourned, the count had proceeded as far as the Fourteenth ward.

Tuesday evening the Republicans of the Second ward of Homestead will celebrate their victory. This ward was always a Democratic stronghold. John F. Cox will speak at the fire engine house.

BOY'S HAPLESS SEARCH.

Went to Seek Missing Sister, and Was Arrested by Baltimore Police as a Runaway.

While searching Baltimore for his sister who had eloped, Hugh Cavanaugh, a young son of Hugh and Elizabeth Cavanaugh of 3128 Mary street, this city, was arrested by the Baltimore police Monday as a runaway.

Superintendent Wallace was notified yesterday and disclosed the fact to the boy's parents, who did not know his whereabouts. Last July his sister, Elizabeth, eloped with a man named George Brown, whom the parents opposed because of a difference in religious belief. The daughter had written from Baltimore asking forgiveness and as the brother was much attached to her it is believed he ran off to meet her and induce her to return. Mr. Cavanaugh wired the Baltimore police asking them to release the boy.

WELCOME TO A PRELATE.

Big Demand for Seats for Bishop Potter's Address in Carnegie Hall Tuesday Night.

The advance sale of seats for the lecture to be given by Bishop Potter of New York at Pittsburgh Carnegie music hall next Tuesday night indicates that every available inch of space in the hall will be taken. The seats were placed on sale yesterday morning at Hamilton's music store in Wood street and many persons were kept waiting in line for the ticket window to be opened.

Mrs. Enoch Rauh, president of the Pittsburgh Council of Jewish Women, said yesterday that the outlook was most encouraging. Bishop Potter is coming to this city as the guest of the council and several brilliant gatherings will be held in his honor.

The Rays at the Duquesne.

Johnny and Emma Ray, who tickled all Pittsburgh a month ago at the Duquesne theater with their newest farce, "Down the Pike," will return to that house next week, when they are expected to more than duplicate their recent success. In fact, the advance sale, which opened Monday, indicates this.

LULL IN GRAFT INVESTIGATION

No Decisive Step Is Made by Either Prosecution or Police Officials of Allegheny.

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION

It seems as though the Allegheny police officials are in a state of indecision concerning what should be done next in the defensive tactics that they have employed since the graft investigation started. Nothing more has been heard of the three informations that were to be made against Mrs. Sue Williams. Attorney Thomas M. Marshall several days ago said that charges of selling liquor without a license, selling on Sunday, and keeping a disorderly house would be lodged against Mrs. Williams, and that her own testimony, given before Alderman Toole, would be used against her.

Now it seems some difference of opinion has arisen among those in Allegheny who are interested in suppressing the investigation. So far as can be learned, the idea of further prosecution of Mrs. Williams has been abandoned as being more hurtful than advantageous to the Allegheny officials. The filing of an appeal from the summary conviction of Mrs. Williams, whose house was raided last Sunday, has been suggestive of what might follow further action against the woman by the police.

In each step taken by the public safety officials and their counsel a countermovement has immediately been started by Attorneys Marron and Haymaker. Their failure to make any appreciable advance in their cause has brought about an apparent determination on the part of the Allegheny officials to simply await results, so far as the public can see, and to work quietly in the channels best known to themselves.

On Wednesday night Director Scandrett and Superintendent Campbell had a long conference in Campbell's private office. Roundsman Joe Dean was called in and talked for a time with Scandrett. Superintendent Campbell and John T. McAuley had a meeting yesterday afternoon with Attorney Marshall in the latter's office in the Frick building.

Attorney John C. Haymaker was engaged with a case in court yesterday and had no time to devote to the graft investigation.

ENGINEERS TO VISIT LOCK 2.

Members of the Society Will Inspect Monongahela Work Tomorrow.

The reception committee of the Engineers' Society announces for tomorrow afternoon an excursion to Lock No. 2, in the Monongahela river. The invitation is given by the Dravo Construction Company to the society, and a special boat will leave the wharf at the foot of Wood street at 12:30. Luncheon will be served on arrival.

Chairman George T. Barnsley of the committee expects to have a large party on the trip as the lock is one of the largest ever built by the government and unusually large quantities of concrete are being placed each day. The party will see also the work of building a landing at the Edgar Thompson plant of the Carnegie Steel Company from which rails will be loaded for shipment south by water. This concrete is deposited in 15 feet of water.

SOLVING FIRE MYSTERIES.

Citizens of Turtle Creek Suspect Arson in Burning of Lockup.

Residents of Turtle Creek are agitated over two alleged attempts to burn down the borough lockup. A charge of arson is expected to be lodged soon and two persons, said to be witnesses, were examined yesterday by District Attorney Stewart and County Detective Robinson. Their names are being withheld.

The old borough lockup was burned several weeks ago and several nights ago a stable adjacent to the new lockup under course of construction was burned. The uncompleted lockup was damaged and the fire gave evidence of incendiary origin. Burgess E. A. Jobe was in Pittsburgh yesterday consulting with attorneys.

PITTSBURGH HUNTERS FINED FOR VIOLATING GAME LAWS

Edward Keller, William Miller, John Grant and T. C. Elliott, members of a Pittsburgh hunting party in the Nipissing district, Canada, were heavily fined for violating the game laws, according to the North Bay Times. The Pittsburghers are alleged to have slaughtered three cow moose, two calves and two bull moose out of season. They were overtaken by local game wardens and sentenced to pay fines of $50 each and their rifles were confiscated.

USED DRESS AS DANGER SIGNAL

Plucky Woman Waved Child's Garments and Probably Averted Disaster.

TWO FIREMEN WERE HURT

In a train wreck filled with exciting incidents an engineer and a fireman on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad were severely injured yesterday. Their engine was derailed and 10 cars of a freight train were wrecked. Had it not been for a woman, who, hanging out clothes, saw the freight train wrecked and signaled a might have resulted in the death and injpassenger train to stop, the accident jury of many persons.

THE INJURED.

SAMUEL BITTS, Connellsville; engineer of train No. 3; hurt internally; shoulder dislocated and collar bone fractured; taken home.

SAMUEL M'MINN, Versailles; fireman of passenger train; arm broken, body bruised and scalp lacerated; taken home.

The accident happened at Coulter, eight miles east of McKeesport. About 2 p. m. a freight train going east broke in the middle. The snapping of the airbrake's hose caused the forward section to stop so suddenly that the train "buckled," and 10 cars were strewn over the west bound track.

Mrs. William Dunn was hanging clothes in her yard near the railroad tracks. She knew the passenger train bound for Pittsburgh was due. Rushing out on the tracks with a child's dress in her hand she waved frantically. Engineer Bitts saw her just as his locomotive rounded a curve at the rate of 30 miles an hour. He jammed on the emergency brakes, shouted to his fireman to jump, and sprang out of the cab himself. McMinn leaped, landing in front of the freight locomotive. The passenger locomotive was thrown off the track on its side.

The passengers hurried from the train and ran to Bitts' aid, but he waved them off and told them to search for the fireman under the locomotive. He refused to accept assistance until McMinn was brought to him. Bitts had not seen McMinn jump.

The railroad tracks were torn up for 100 yards, rails being wrenched from the roadbed and the ties splintered. All afternoon and at night workmen were busy repairing the tracks. An extra engine was brought on from Connellsville and the passenger train was taken back to New Haven and brought into Pittsburgh over the Pittsburgh & Lake Erie's lines. Other through passenger trains were brought into town by the same detour.

Two clerks in the mail car narrowly escaped death, being almost crushed by the rib of a steel hopper car which was thrust through a window of their car.

Waiting for Mr. Phipps.

The committee on public works was called to meet yesterday, but there was no quorum. Director Bigelow said the chief measure before the committee was the resolution to widen Cecil alley, and nothing would be done about that until Henry Phipps came to Pittsburgh on November 15. Mr. Phipps, it is said, is willing to contribute liberally to the expense of widening the alley.

Edgeworth Wants to Become Borough.

Several residents of Edgeworth, on the Fort Wayne railroad, met in the office of Attorney Dudley Rogers yesterday to have him prepare necessary papers to hold an election in Edgeworth the first Tuesday in December to vote on the incorporation of Edgeworth into a borough.

Friday, November 11, 1904.

Gov. Peabody's defeat in Colorado is regrettable, for it has been accomplished by a union of the forces of disorder. The governor went to extremes in the effort to quell the anarchy in his state, resulting from the miners' strike, but it was the manifestation of his zeal for good order and the outcome of conditions difficult, if not impossible, to deal with by the ordinary processes of civil law. The campaign against his re-election was led by the worst elements of his turbulent state and his defeat is apt to be construed as a license to murder and to prevent honest men from working when they desire to do so. The situation may be saved if Governor-Elect Adams takes hold with a firm hand and performs his full duty.

Titusville voted, in addition to candidates for office, upon a proposition to bond the city to the amount of $100,000 for the establishment of an industrial high school. The bond issue was defeated by two to one. This result is a surprise, as the press of the city and many of its leading citizens ardently advocated the new educational institution. Industrial education is unreservedly commended in cities where it has been incorporated into the school system and it is favored by leaders in business and thought throughout the country. It is not so easy, however, to convince the mass of voters of its advantages. The matter appeals most forcibly to those who are in touch with world affairs in their broadest aspect.

There will be one Democrat in the Pennsylvania delegation to the Fifty-ninth congress. He will represent the Thirteenth district, composed of Berks and Lehigh counties, having pulled through by a narrow majority. Lehigh county voted against him, though it has always been regarded as certain Democratic territory. The Sixteenth and Twenty-sixth districts have been lost to the Democrats, the former on a straight vote and the latter by reason of the independent candidacy of Congressman John R. Shull. He took enough votes from Davis R. Brodhead, the Democratic candidate, to secure the election of George Schnebel, Republican. That district is normally strongly Democratic, but there is little reason for any Pennsylvanian to adhere to that party.

Connecticut and New Jersey, formerly reliably Democratic, both broke their records for Republican pluralities. These states rebelled against Bryanism in 1896 and gave majorities for Maj. McKinley, but have surpassed the figures for that year in the cordiality of their indorsement of President Roosevelt. The Democratic managers had calculated on winning these two states by the nomination of a sound-money candidate, especially as they had swung back in 1900 from the extreme figures of 1896. The result proves their calculations valueless. Candidate Parker did not impress the people and the Democratic platform declarations were not popular. In Connecticut and New Jersey there was a fair test of average American sentiment as to the men and the principles they represented.

Ever since the sinking of the Maine in Havana harbor there has been talk of raising the wreck, but there has been a dispute over the authority it would be necessary to secure in order to take the hulk away. After the executive department at Washington announced that it would make no claim on the property it was bought of the Cuban government for $5,000. It is announced that a coffer dam is to be built and the remains patched up so that they can be raised. They will then be put on exhibition in Havana and ultimately brought to Coney Island for the same purpose. Although the steel in the hulk was valuable once its worth as it lies in the harbor is very small indeed. When the bottom is exposed there will be considerable curiosity to know whether the traces of the explosion show whether it was blown up from the inside or out.

Secretary Taft utters a timely warning to the effect that the magnitude of the Republican victory will be dangerous if it causes a relaxing of self-restraint. That is entirely true and the people are quite capable of reversing the political situation just as tremendously the other way. Exactly this thing happened after the presidential election of 1872, the only one in our party history comparable with that of this week in the size of the electoral vote. President Grant received a majority of 296 in the electoral college and the house of representatives stood 202 Republican to 88 Democrats. Two years later and the Republican strength in the house had been reduced to 107 and the Democratic strength had been increased to 181. The number of people who are attached to the Republican party as a party and may be counted upon to stand by it always, fall short of the number required to carry a national election or to confer congressional control. The balance of power is held by the people who regard party only as an instrument to promote the honor and welfare of their country. Unless the Republican party behaves so as to win the approbation of this class of people they can slam it just as low as they have raised it high. If congress interprets the victory as giving the "deestricks" license to raid the treasury there will be a reaction which will play havoc in that body.

Congressional Results.

Latest returns indicate that the house of representatives of the Fifty-ninth congress will be Republican by a majority more than twice as large as that of the Fifty-eighth, congress. This is a more decisive test of public sentiment toward party politics than the unprecedented majorities given to President Roosevelt. The president is personally popular and admired. The personal element was a large factor in the presidential equation, but in electing a congress so strongly Republican, to second the efforts of the executive, the voters have given their most emphatic indorsement to Republican party policies.

The Republican gains in congress are widely distributed throughout the country except in those southern states where voting is a farce. In those states there is no expression of popular sentiment and no consideration of national policies. But the indorsement of Republican candidates for congress in other parts of the country is in the nature of a demand for the enforcement of the provisions of the Constitution concerning the ratio of representation accorded to states which restrict the suffrage. This matter cannot be longer overlooked. The south has invited action and its course practically compels congress to take cognizance of the situation.

Judge Parker's Remedy.

Judge Parker has not yet given any intimation of the means by which he hopes to prevent trusts and corporations from making campaign contributions, although he can hardly hold that the common law is sufficient to cover this offense. In limiting his proposed prohibition to campaign contributions it seems to us that he narrows the scope of his great moral reform in an illogical way. Trusts have not only made contributions to campaign funds but also to colleges and churches and to other instrumentalities of culture and education. If it is so heinous an offense to contribute funds for the education of the people upon questions of public policy, how much greater the offense when it is extended to education in general and to the maintenance of churches and missions. In these fields the very springs and sources of public virtue will be contaminated if trust money is so poisonous.

Those of us who hold that it is an entirely proper use of money to spread information among the people upon the questions of the day realize that it requires large sums to carry on a campaign of education lasting five months, and think that men who are able to give money for public uses cannot do better than to make campaign contributions. The only place where wrong comes in is when conditions of legislative favor are annexed, but then it is not the contribution which is bad but the motive with which it is made. The chairman of the Republican party in this campaign was chosen by President Roosevelt to give him complete assurance that no such obligations should be incurred. No president ever took office more untrammelled than he is by obligation to any person or any interest save the public welfare.

Mistakes in Voting.

Throughout the state many thousands of defective ballots were cast on Tuesday. The principal mistake was in marking the top of the column for a straight ticket instead of the square at the side. The effect was to swell the vote for presidential electors, while county and district candidates did not get all that should have been coming to them. This fact has caused an outcry against the new ballot from those who believe there should not be any provision for voting a "straight" ticket on the one hand, and from those who think the voting of a mixed ticket should be made as difficult as possible on the other. As a matter of fact the new ballot is not to blame for what has happened. The voters were careless in not fully informing themselves how to mark it. The large percentage of error is due not to any inherent defect in the ballot, but to the fact that it is a new form. Any other form would have been attended by the same difficulty.

When the Baker ballot was adopted at the session of 1891 it met the same fate in practice as the new ballot on Tuesday. Many voters failed to mark it properly. Next session it was amended to meet the principal objections urged against it and the result was more confusion. Now it is proposed in some quarters to make another change and if that advice is followed the lesson of this week will be lost. If the present form is retained voters will be familiar with it at the next election and will mark it correctly. No great harm has been done by the mistakes in marking, as no results were changed even in the closest districts. But under other circumstances so great a percentage of error might be serious. No further change should be made unless the public is practically unanimous in demanding it and better agreed than ever before in regard to the changes that are to be made.

The present ballot has the merit of absolute secrecy and simplicity. It is easy to mark for a straight or mixed ticket. It gives equal opportunity to every candidate and to every voter. The chances are if any attempt is made to adopt a new ballot the outcome will be a worse form and more confusion than occurred upon the introduction of this one.

Democratic Party Bankruptcy.

An Associated Press dispatch from New York says that the election returns are regarded there as the death knell of the Democratic party. The death knell has been sounded over the Democratic party before, but it has a knack of reviving and getting about again when it seemed to be done for. It survived the war, although if anything could be fatal to it that would have been. It got so low in 1872 that the only thing to do seemed to be to wind up its affairs and transfer the business of political opposition to a new party. Nevertheless in 1884 it was up and doing again with great vigor and in 1892 it won a tremendous victory. Still it must be admitted that a crisis has been reached in its history. The Hearst and Bryan faction regard it as bankrupt and they propose to establish a Populist receivership to take charge of the estate.

We are inclined to think that they will be successful, but that implies no great change in the present character of the Democratic party. That party really ceased to be the historic Democratic party in 1895 when it repudiated the Cleveland administration and fused with the Populist party. It has been a Populist party ever since, although retaining the Democratic party name, and while Judge Parker declared his personal adherence to the gold standard established by Jackson, in all other respects he made complete submission to the new ideas and principles which have been substituted for the historic principles of the Democratic party. The principles of the latter-day Democracy are like those of the Federalist party when it raised the cry of imperialism over the Louisiana purchase exactly as the Democratic party of our day raised the same hullabaloo over the Philippines. It is not, however, likely that the Democratic party will pass away like the Federalist party, but while the party title will be kept up the influences which captured the organization in 1895 will be confirmed in control.

The Hope for Peace.

Closely following the election of President Roosevelt came the announcement that an unofficial suggestion for peace had been made to the Russian government and that it had the weight of the Japanese government behind it. While the Japanese are not forced to take any such measures, they must realize that proposals of such a nature would be more likely to be given consideration now than after some notable reverse to either side. Port Arthur has not capitulated yet, and although Gen. Kuropatkin has been driven back he has been able to maintain his forces in comparatively good order. This is considered a favorable opportunity for such a suggestion, which Russia could hardly entertain if she should meet with a more definite reverse.

While no encouragement is reported to have resulted from the overtures, the refusal of the plan by one of the contesting parties leaves the way more open to outside influences. The suggestion has been made that Great Britain, the United States and France might join in representations to Russia and that President Roosevelt could well take the initiative. It is even said that he has been considering the matter, but postponed it to await the result of the election. Excepting for operations at Port Arthur, the campaign has been at a standstill for some time, although the armies near Mukden are facing each other and eagerly reforming for fresh attacks. The bloodshed in the engagements thus far has been appalling considering their indecisiveness, and this ought to appeal to a professed lover of peace like the czar. The hopelessness of further contests on the sea has been demonstrated by the blundering of the Baltic fleet, while land operations alone would be difficult for Russia to maintain at such a distance.

The developments of the next few weeks will show whether there is basis for the hope that there may be intervention, for it is not likely that the contending nations will ever settle their dispute alone until one of them is crushed. But the czar has learned to respect the prowess of the Japanese, whom he had despised, and he must know how unpopular the war has proved at home and how much his own prestige abroad has been suffering. If he is ever amenable to intervention, therefore, it would be while the Baltic fleet is still unscathed and Port Arthur has not raised the white flag. He might then yield to the representations of three such powers as Great Britain, the United States and France, who might well be regarded a superior force. In the meantime it is said that he has been finding difficulty, in spite of the size of his empire, in gathering sufficient officers and reservists to make good the losses sustained in Manchuria.

While Russia denies that she will consider mediation at this time and intimates that such offers from foreign powers would be unacceptable, the hope will still remain that there may be some way of ending the war before it sacrifices further life and property. The influences for peace are especially active now, and Russia might well take advantage of them.

While Gen. Stoessel's defense of Port Arthur has challenged the admiration of the world, his reputation will suffer from his refusal to send non-combatants out of the beleaguered fortress when requested to do so and his resistance may be carried beyond proper bounds. Late reports paint terrible pictures of the suffering of non-combatants and apparently the garrison is now starving.

In the investigation of the anti-Jewish riots at Gomel, which occurred last year, the police captain accused of aiding and abetting gave testimony charging the Jews with the first disturbance. The recall of another witness was refused and so the inquiry becomes a farce. Justice has not yet been established in Russia.

Today is set for the meeting of the chamber of commerce Greater Pittsburgh committee to formulate plans of campaign. The people are greatly interested in this meeting and 9 out of every 10 are ardently in favor of its object.

Russia offers a reward for evidence of the presence of Japanese torpedo boats in the North sea. But there were no cases of jim-jams there apart from the Baltic fleet.

One more battleship went into the water yesterday, the New Jersey. It is a fine vessel, worthy of the great country for the defense of which it is designed.

Two bank robberies have been reported from Western New York within a week. Maybe that is where the Allegheny gang has gone until the trouble blows over.

After all the new ballot is simple and easy. Now that everybody knows how the mistakes were made there will be no more of them.

Incendiarism at Turtle Creek offers a good subject for investigation and for rural police, if we had them.

Russia refuses Japan's overtures for peace. Russia is obstinate if not successful.

Pike county is the Democratic Gibraltar in Pennsylvania. It is all backwoods.

Talked of in Gotham

By FRANK A. PARKER.

(By Private Wire to The Gazette.)

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.— Prof. Charles F. Chandler of Columbia university was appointed by the department of health today as consulting sanitary officer to investigate conditions in the subway. Dr. Darlington, president of the board of health, said that he had seen many reports of physicians regarding the air in the subway. He said no complaints had been received by the board; that the air was in good circulation as far as he knew, but to decide the matter thoroughly Prof. Chandler had been appointed to investigate. Samples of air in various parts of the subway will be taken, he said, and a thorough investigation made. He thought Prof. Chandler would probably finish his investigation in 30 days.

There has been considerable talk about atmospheric conditions in the subway since the recent publication of an interview with Dr. August G. Seibert, who after a series of experiments declared that the tunnel air was deficient in oxygen. The matter now has called forth a number of varying opinions from experts and chemists. While the latter are at odds, those who get headaches from riding in the tunnel may not have the satisfaction of feeling sure as to just what produces the physical discomfort, and those who find the subway pleasant will be at an equal loss to know why. Prof. Alfred Spice, who has charge of the chemical laboratories of Cooper Union, does not agree with Dr. Seibert that the air in the subway is harmfully deficient in oxygen.

"I found to my surprise that the amount of carbon dioxide was no greater than it would be in the cars of the express service on the Ninth avenue road, where the cars are closed between Christopher and One Hundred and Sixteenth streets," he said. "The amount of oxygen found in the air was 19.6, which is but a trifle over one per cent below the normal."

Need of Great Seaside Park Urged.

Advocates of a great seaside park will gather in force tomorrow before the board of estimate and apportionment to urge favorable action. Ministers, philanthropists and East Side society workers have been organizing the movement for months, encouraged by the attitude of the board of estimate in giving a hearing to the project. It will be pointed out at the hearing before the board of estimate that the constantly improving transportation facilities will make the trip to Rockaway merely a jaunt for the thousands who live in the most densely populated part of the city.

It is proposed to put up a great bathing reservation on the plan of the Revere and Nantasket beaches near Boston, which are generally acknowledged to be of inestimable benefit to the poor of that city. Enthusiasm for the plan has caused the Merchants' association, the People's institute, the Confederated Labor union, the Association for Improving the Condition of the Poor, the Municipal Art society, the Charity Organization society and numerous other bodies of a civic, political, mercantile and philanthropic character to become interested in it. They will be represented at the hearing.

Sully's Offices Are Now Bare.

The old offices of Daniel J. Sully, who tried to corner the cotton market of the country, were crowded today to suffocation. The occasion was the sale at auction of the furniture of his old suite of offices. The sale of the effects in the dining room, bath room and the other private rooms—for Sully kept a complete establishment for the use of himself and his employes—this man who thought in terms of millions—that held the fancy, touched the imagination even. The furnishing of the place was luxurious, but made no trying demands on the aesthetic sense. There was an oriental rug on the floor, but the furniture, solid and substantial though it was, ran to such safe things as take shape in mahogany and leather.

The pictures, too, revealed the man. They were all photographs—unusually large photographs—pictures of the London stock exchange building, that of the Bank of England, Windsor castle, and the house of parliament. These were the things that London had meant to this man of vast schemes, apparently—these things of eminent solidity and stability. Sentiment—that is other than the money sentiment, was represented by a photographic reproduction of that equestrian statue of Washington recently erected in Paris; by that and by another reproduction of the head of a cavalier by Roybet. Very small prices prevailed.

Matrimony Still a Drawback.

On the understanding that the court of appeals has decided that married women have the right to teach in the public schools of this city, a large number of former teachers are making demands upon the board of superintendents of the department of education that they be given back their old places. "The court of appeals did not decide that married teachers have the right to teach in the schools," said an associate city superintendent today. "The court decided that marriage was not one of the charges upon which a school teacher could be dismissed.

"Following upon that decision seven or eight months ago the board of education rescinded its by-law requiring that teachers be tried for marrying. It did not rescind its by-law requiring that all newly appointed teachers must be single.

"There are times when we reinstate married women. The board has a by-law making special provision for the women whose husbands have left them, or who cannot properly support them. However, we are compelled to refuse most married applicants. The matter has not yet been taken to the courts. Possibly that is because most married applicants are without money."

Mrs. Sarah E. Hunter was bequeathed $8,000 by Moses T. Williams, who lived in her house the past 11 years. Certainly a remarkable landlady who could win such a reward.

Unconscious from terror and exposure, Peter Johnson was found in a quagmire in Hoboken. He will recover.

Policeman Walsh drank so much "ginger ale" last night that he broke a saloon window, then arrested the proprietor of the place. And Walsh has only been on the force four months.

A Square Meal.

A round-shouldered man, with a round face and round head, wearing a round straw hat, entered a restaurant round the corner. He partook of soup in a round dish, with a round roll, a cut from a round of beef with round potatoes round it, and some round dumplings, followed by a pound of roly-poly, and some round Dutch cheese afterward. He finished up with some round apples, and then said he had had a "square" meal.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

The Quiet Observer.

By ERASMUS WILSON.

With patience bear the lot to thee assigned;
Nor think it chance, nor murmur at the load,
For know what man calls fortune is from God.
—Pythagoras.

Why do you complain?

Have you ever felt the better for complaining about things that have displeased or annoyed you?

Just think it over with a view to discovering any possible benefits you may have derived from complaining, or growling, or cursing.

We bump into many ruts and bluffs and pinches of various kinds as we go spinning along the course of life, and it is the fashionable thing to complain, or grumble, or swear as these jolts occur.

But what's the use?

We get results, some sort of results, but are they worth while? We only become more and more confirmed grumblers, more disagreeable growlers and more offensive cursers and swearers.

These results are certain and sure, whether we desire them or not. As the plum tree brings forth plum fruit so does the grumbling man or woman bring forth fruit characteristic of their type.

This is law and common sense.

* * * * *

Pity the poor pessimist! This is a sorry world to him, and the people are a sorry set as far as he can see.

The pessimist wants sympathy, but he doesn't deserve it; and he doesn't want pity, but he gets it because it is coming to him.

In order to sympathize with him you would have to feel as he feels, which would be sad for you. Pity him and let it go at that.

The optimist may get too gay and now and then seem quite foolhke, but he doesn't depress you as does the pessimist.

Have you ever known a pessimist who was the real thing? If not you have missed a wonderful experience, yet one that you can well afford to miss. But if you have known one you have discovered that a little of him is a great plenty, even though he be scholarly, cultured and refined to a way.

Following are definitions showing the difference between optimism and pessimism, found in the American Journal of Education:

"There is a deal of nonsense about optimism from the fellows who kick for a living or from the liver. Optimism does not say or think that anything or everything is all right. It merely says that things are better than they used to be and not as good as they will be.

"The pessimist says that things are worse than they used to be, but not so bad as they are going to be. The sun never shines and never will shine for a pessimist. It is all through shining. It always shines or will shine for an optimist.

"A pessimist sends the cold shivers down your back every time you see his pallid face or hear his doleful voice; an optimist sends a nervous impulse of strength through every fiber of your being.

"A pessimist says he is a public blessing because he keeps things stirred up. A mule does that.

"A pessimist only keeps things stirred up when you are on the tail end of things. His heels are lively. He is always in the past.

"The optimist is the only live factor. His face is to the front. If the night is dark he sends a headlight down the track."

* * * * *

Do you know—of course you know it; but do you realize the fact—that complaining and grumbling begets anger and that anger takes from your face its beauty lines, leaving frowns and wrinkles instead?

The spirit of anger generates a poison, or toxin—a sort of ptomain, perhaps—that robs the blood of some of its finer vitalizing qualities. This necessarily results in less perfect development, which in turn signifies degeneration.

Observers tell us that the children of ill-tempered parents are quite invariably more or less degenerate.

But the worst of it is that a complaining, angry, cursing spirit is highly inimical to soul growth, so that if allowed to dominate your life your soul will eventually be lost to you, and through no fault of the soul, nor of its Creator, but because you have failed to maintain for its comfort development, a congenial, loving, admirable spirit.

Can you lose your soul through your own conduct? Surely, and just as certainly as you may lose a friend through not treating him as such.

Can you imagine a soul, living, loving and helpful, being associated, enveloped, bound up in a cranky, cruel, pessimistic spirit?

As you may know the spirit is the environment of the soul, and the manner of person you are is an index of the character of the spirit that animates you and environs your soul.

* * * * *

Now do you begin to realize that you are not only individually responsible for your own soul, through a lack of proper attention on your part?

And not only this, but that you are in a large measure answerable for the souls of those whom God has entrusted to your care.

And thus you see that nothing short of a rational, reasonable mode and method of life can possibly save your own soul and make sure a proper development of the souls of those for whose characters and dispositions you are in a large, very large, measure responsible.

It is possible for you to live a quiet, placid, serene life.

Some of your forebears may have been Friends or Quakers and you may recall their quiet, serene lives. It was no trouble for them to live thus. In fact their manner of life did not involve half the trouble and worry and discomfort that yours does.

There is, therefore, no sufficient excuse for your manner of life. And if your troubles and discomforts are not sufficient warning that you are not living as you should, and as you may then there can be little hope for your final salvation, and that of those whose lives you are directing.

This is rather serious talk, but it is on a serious subject, and one that needs to be dealt with most seriously and earnestly.

* * * * *

That this same view of the matter is being taken by leading educators is shown by their talks and writings on the development of men and women.

Earnest, thoughtful, practical preachers are also beginning to preach and to teach along these lines, so that with the aid of teachers and preachers and writers it is possible that coming generations may become more soulful, which means being nearer to God with more certainty of a higher, better and purer life hereafter.

Following is an excerpt from an article by an eminent educator away up in the state of Washington on the making of better men and women:

"Somebody has defined a devil to be an intellectual being without moral sensibilities or impulses. This would, indeed, make an evil spirit.

"But man is a triune being, possessing an intellectual, moral and physical nature. There is no necessity, therefore, for him to become satanic in his life's tendencies. A proper education has for its object the equal development of all his powers or natures, whether moral, intellectual or physical, if the intellectual powers are educated at the expense of the moral and physical powers, while you may have a sharp and brilliant man, you are apt to have a bad and physically weak man.

"The career of such a man is always brief. He always disappoints expectations. The moral and intellectual natures are, to some extent, independent, yet if too great stress is given the moral, and the physical neglected, you are apt to develop the emotional, the overcredulous, the cranky man. If you develop the physical at the expense of the moral and intellectual you have the prize fighter and the bruiser. This results in the entire elimination of the moral, leaving only a diluted residuum of conventional honor.

"The only safe process is the full, equal and concurrent development of all the powers and faculties of this wonderful triune being."

IT IS TO SMILE.

"Say, pa, when I'm a man won't I have to obey you nor ma any more?"

"No, but you'll have a boss then who will make you wonder why you ever thought we were hard to deal with. You needn't tell your ma, however, that I told you."—New York Herald.

Election Comment

How the Result Is Received.

"Tom" Taggart's Newspaper Explains.

Indianapolis Sentinel: With the vast campaign fund raised from the criminal trusts the Republican leaders were not by any means confident of the safety of their party. In the last days of the campaign they showed that feverish anxiety which could have no place in the minds of men who were sure of their ground. But though the Republican party's triumph has been surprising, and though it had at its command a corruption fund larger than that raised for McKinley in 1896, there is another reason than this for the victory that has been won over the Democracy. There is no denying the fact that the people seem to be satisfied with their condition under Republican domination. They have expressed at the polls their belief that there is nothing wrong in imperialism. * * * The great bulk of the voters have apparently expressed their willingness to continue for some time longer a government which is in open partnership with the trusts, to continue in the White House a "man on horseback" wielding a big stick.

A Southern View.

Atlanta Constitution: Suffice it now to say that the people of the whole country are to have opportunity of ascertaining whether the second term of Theodore Roosevelt will be an administration marked by sectional prejudice, or whether it will be free from the unfortunate developments which, during his first term, have served to create the impression that he was neither friendly to nor considerate of the south. Now that he is elected for a second term, and is free from the alluring entanglements of another nomination, it is to be hoped that he will prove himself the chief executive of the whole country, with breadth enough to treat all sections alike, and with manhood enough to outline and follow a policy that will not be based upon sectional resentment and narrow partisanship. For the sake of the south, for the sake of the peace and the welfare of the entire country, we trust he will prove himself an American in the broadest sense of the word, rather than a mere sectionalist. The opportunity presenting itself to him is a great one. While there is much to deplore in the record he has so far made, there is much in the man himself to admire. He is brainy and courageous and honest; and we believe it can be said in truth that he will enter upon his new term of office less hampered by questionable pledges than any of his Republican predecessors in a generation. Will he rise equal to the opportunity? If he does, he can do much toward mollifying the intensity of the feeling against him in the south, and he can make for himself a place in American history to be envied.

If Roosevelt Wants War He Can Get It.

Memphis (Tenn.) Commercial Appeal: Some people think that the president, now that he has received such an overwhelming popular indorsement, will abandon all restraint and give vent to his unbridled ambition. It is predicted that he will be especially revengeful against the south. This section has enjoyed a wonderful prosperity while industrial conditions in other parts of the country have retrograded somewhat. That the good fortune of this section has aroused the jealousy of the Republican politicians is not to be denied, and President Roosevelt designedly or unintentionally has infused new life into the race issue in a way to jeopardize the industrial peace of the south. * * * We have always been able to veil our admiration for Theodore Roosevelt. We regard him as vaporous rather than valorous and the south is not afraid to meet any issue he may broach, but we should prefer vastly that he wiuld give the country a decent, decorous, economical and honorable administration. We have been badly defeated and we are sorely disappointed, but the south depends on no man in the White House or elsewhere for the privilege of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. If the president wants war with this section, he can get it; but we have an idea that he will be glad to get peace. In the meantime the statesmen of the south will prepare themselves to resist any further aggressions he may contemplate, and stand unflinchingly for economy, national honor, constitutional government and honorable dealings with all nations, great and small.

Ask No Quarter; Expect None.

Louisville Courier-Journal: The south, let us hope, will be able to outlast even a reopening of the old sectional agitation, whether this assails its racehood, or its representation. From Theodore Roosevelt we ask no quarter and expect none. He is infinitely a worse enemy of the white men and women of the south than any of the radical leaders of the past, because not only that he entertains certain crude experimental ideas about the negro, the testing of which will prove equally hurtful both to the blacks and the whites, but also because, perverted by the sense of being renegade to the southern blood that courses in his veins, there burns within him the blind intolerance of the bigot, keeping alive and warming the hatred of the man in the wrong. Infinite harm he has done already. More of the same sort we expect. It is, however, a long lane that has no turning, and, used to evil influences and inured to ill-treatment, the people of the south will more than ever turn to the development of their material resources, throwing themselves back the while with simple, childlike confidence upon the wisdom of that God of whom it hath been said that "Whom He loveth He chasteneth."

Must Tread Wine Press Alone.

Senator E. W. Carmack was asked at Memphis, Tenn., what he considered the causes of the result of the recent national election, and replied: "The influences contributing to that result are many. Among them are, first, the sheer power of corruption brought about by the base surrender of the present administration to the trusts; second, the specious argument based upon the fact of hard times under the last Democratic administration and prosperity under the succeeding Republican administration, and, third, popularity of south baiting in the north. Throwing brickbats at the south is a favorite way of doing penance for sins north of the Mason and Dixon line. President Roosevelt showed himself to be one of the most cunning of politicians when he made his appeal to the northern white men against his brother." Answering the question as to what the election shows, he said: "It shows that the white people of the south must tread the wine press alone, as they have done for 40 years."

Follow Name Rather Than Principle.

"The result of the election emphatically demonstrates the fact that the Republican party will always follow a name regardless of principle and that the Democratic party will always contend for a principle regardless of name," said Mayor Harrison of Chicago, when asked to express himself as to the result of the election. "This election means much to the Democratic party. It means that the party must stand for something. It means that the reorganizers must be reorganized. I am not prepared to say at this moment who should do the reorganizing. There is no immediate hurry. It might be well to permit matters to drift until we are in a position to get a clearer view. This opinion is, of course, based upon local conditions, but I am not advised that there is any radical difference in conditions generally throughout the country. There is one great danger in the reorganization of the party. There may be a tendency on the part of some to go back too far. There may be some who, startled and stampeded because of the big Republican vote, may advocate the taking up of the Democratic side. This would be a serious and criminal blunder."

Means Bryan's Return.

Norman E. Mack, the Democratic national committeeman, gave out this statement regarding the cause of the Republican victory: "Unquestionably the result means the return of Bryan as the party leader and the re-adoption of most of the basic principles of the party as enunciated in the platforms on which he ran. When Bryan was first nominated he had to face all the enemies made within the party by the last Democratic administration and in addition he had to face the antagonism of all friends of that administration. During this campaign the people have come to know Bryan better. Some of those Democrats who bitterly opposed him in 1896 and in 1900 now recognize him as a great man. The people are not so much afraid of him as they were. Perhaps it is too early to attempt to analyze the vote or to point out the lesson it teaches, but it strikes me at this time the party must be reorganized again. We have tried the experiment of an indefinite compromise platform and have gone down to a terrible defeat. We now know that Bryan comes nearer representing what the party wants than do the men who controlled the national convention in St. Louis."

TELLING EFFECT OF LABOR VOTE

Frank Buchanan Discusses Election from a Union Official's Standpoint.

WORKINGMEN NOT SOCIALISTS

"That organized labor is being educated to apply systematic and business-like methods to their affairs was proved by Tuesday's election. All the political aspirants who favored employers unfavorable to the working class suffered at the ballot box."

This statement was made last night by Frank Buchanan, president of the Bridge and Structural Iron workers. He was in Pittsburgh yesterday and left last night for Los Angeles, Cal., where he will attend the annual convention of the American Federation. In discussing the election, he said:

"The idea that the trend of organized labor is toward the Socialist party is an error and does gross injustice to a large majority in the labor movement. True, the followers of Eugene V. Debs are nearly all workingmen, yet he did not capture one-twentieth of the labor vote, and over 50 per cent of his vote came from Democrats dissatisfied with their platform, political managers and candidates.

"The power of organized labor changed the result in several states. The trade disputes in New York city and surrounding towns the past few years resulted in Higgins carrying New York, and had not Higgins been the choice of the Republican political ring he would have run ahead of the ticket.

"Another proof of this was in Massachusetts. W. L. Douglass, chosen for governor, has been friendly to organized labor ever since he entered business. The workingmen showed their appreciation by electing him. The result in Colorado would have been entirely different had not Gov. Peabody overstepped his authority in favor of the employers. The party leaders now realize that organized workmen are here to stay and must be recognized as a body of men who are able to take care of their own interests without resorting to illegal methods. If the employer treats the employed fairly, politics will not enter into the labor movement, but if not given a square deal they will resort to the ballot box, more of a business method than striking, which results in distress to both interested and disinterested parties."

TRANSLATION OF PRESIDENT'S BOOK ISSUED IN ITALY

Newspapers of Rome Comment on the Election—Organ of Vatican Highly Praises Mr. Roosevelt.

[Associated Press Cable to The Gazette.]

ROME, Nov. 10.—The election of Mr. Roosevelt to the presidency of the United States has been made the occasion for the issuance of an Italian translation of his book "The Strenuous Life," which is having a large sale. All the newspapers of Rome print appreciative articles on the election of President Roosevelt.

The Patria says: "Mr. Roosevelt does not represent a party, but a superior individuality. He is the most popular man in the United States and in public and private life is a genuine champion of a strong and victorious race, destined through her virtues and irrepressible energy to have the largest part in the history of the world."

The Osservatore Romano, organ of the Vatican, says: "Mr. Roosevelt, while an eminent statesman, able diplomatist and eloquent writer, is showing depth and broadness. He stands out for simplicity of life, love of family and rectitude of principles. Therefore, it is easy to understand the manifestations of rejoicing over his election, in which numerous Catholics in the great republic join, having nothing to say of him but praise."

THREE BURN TO DEATH.

Fire in New York Apartment House Was Probably of Incendiary Origin.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Three persons were burned to death, half a dozen others were overcome by smoke and saved only with the greatest difficulty by the firemen, and more than 30 others, after a thrilling experience on a narrow and crowded fire escape, were aken to the street in their night clothes in a fire which destroyed a five-story apartment house on the upper East Side today.

Of the three victims two were Blanche and Lillian Euhlan, 15 and 18 years old. The other was their grandfather, Frederick Webber, 69 years old. He was a helpless paralytic, yet, under the excitement of the terrible fate threatening him, he arose from his bed and made his way to the hall where his body, burned to a crisp, was found.

The fire is believed to have been of incendiary origin.

WILL MAKE A WIDER MARKET FOR PIG IRON

Commission Houses to Execute Orders for Buying and Selling Certificates.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—Wall street expressed considerable interest today in the announcement that a number of commission houses dealing in stocks and bonds, grain and cotton, or steel and iron, were ready on November 14 to execute on the produce exchange orders for buying and selling pig iron certificates for cash or future delivery. Pig iron certificates have been traded in on the Consolidated exchange for some time. By interesting the produce exchange members in the plan to extensively warehousing pig iron and issue certificates, it is proposed to make a wider market for the commodity. A member of one of the 30 odd firms active in this movement had the following to say today in pointing out the features of the produce exchange innovation:

"For some time the American Pig Iron Storage Warrant Company, headed by George H. Hull, has been ready to build warehouses wherever blast furnaces are located. It is argued by some of the manufacturers, agents and brokers that if the system of storing pig iron is expanded the certificates will act as a flywheel to prevent wide fluctuations, either up or down. It was also pointed out that by purchasing certificates for future delivery a long term contract can be safely figured upon. By paying the warehouse charges and interest, pig iron could be purchased for delivery at any time. Like wheat, corn or whisky, warehouse certificates, the pig iron warrants, can be used for collateral. Until more pig iron comes on the market than can be found today, however, there will be no need of warehouse certificates."

In some steel and iron circles the opinion was expressed today that there was no need for pig iron certificates. The possibility of an influence to steady prices was admitted. But attention was called to the fact that the scheme has been used in England constantly for a number of years. While prices there have been reasonably steady compared with the charges here, the difference was due, it was claimed today, not to the existence of warehouse certificates in England but, to a steadier demand for raw material.

WALL STREET TRADING EXCEEDS LAST YEAR

Stock Market Transactions Have Caught Up With Same Period in 1903.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—For the first time this year the aggregate number of shares sold on the stock exchange exceeds the business of last year. Since January 1 the total number of shares sold has been 139,974,543, against 139,829,300 for the same period last year. The dealings in bonds have been much heavier than last year, the respective totals in par values for the two years being $[illegible]-844,000 for 1904 against $586,489,000 for 1903.

There promises to be much hard work done in Wall street in the next few months if the market shows sustained strength, as it promises to do. There is good banking house opinion that the market should be broad and strong well into next year. If that is the case, Wall street may perhaps do well to prepare itself for unprecedented volumes of business when the public really comes into the market.

It is interesting to note the record trading when speculation was at its height in 1901. Following is a table of the transactions in that excited period: April 19, 2,174,280; April 20, 1,182,926; April 22, 2,355,301; April 23, 1,704,744; April 24, 1,991,847; April 25, 2,067,163; April 26, 1,857,967; Saturday holiday when the stock exchange moved to temporary headquarters in the produce exchange. April 29, 2,619,736; April 30, 3,281,226; May 1, 2,823,498; May 2, 2,854,689; May 3, 2,045,277; May 4, 982,529; May 6, 2,255,175; May 7, 2,040,015; May 8, 2,463,905; May 9, 3,081,765; May 10, 1,892,225.

RUSSIA DESIRES NO INTERVENTION

Emphatically But Courteously She Puts a Quietus on Peace Proposals.

JAPAN'S OFFER WAS SPURNED

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Emphatically, but with all courtesy, Russia, through her ambassadors abroad, has several times informed the neutral powers that she would brook no mediation at this time in her war with Japan. It can be announced that Russia expects her wishes will be respected by all the powers to which she has communicated her views.

Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, said tonight:

"I can announce that I have very good reason to believe that my government's emphatic opposition to any mediation at this time will be respected and observed by all neutral powers."

Of the suggestion made in Great Britain that the United States take the lead in a move for intervention, the ambassador hesitated to repeat what he has announced so many times, that he has positive assurance that this government, while at all times ready to offer its services, has not the slightest intention to take a step toward mediation unless invited by both belligerents. The Russian government is fully aware of the views of this government on the subject, and it is deemed unnecessary at the Russian embassy here again to announce that it is confident this attitude will be strictly adhered to.

LONDON, Nov. 10.—Japan unofficially has made representations to Russia looking to peace. This action has resulted in failure and such representations, even privately, are not likely to be repeated by Japan. The proposition was put forward tentatively and unofficially, so that the Japanese government would be in a position to deny any report that it was suing for peace.

Foreign Secretary Lansdowne's plea for arbitration yesterday evening at the guild hall banquet is taken here to be a pointed suggestion that the United States and France that the time is approaching when the powers must take some action. It can be definitely stated that Lord Lansdowne made his speech with full knowledge that Japan would not resent a proposition looking to peace, coming from the United States, France and Great Britain.

There is a definite impression here that the initiative will come from President Roosevelt.

Japan Is Acquiescent.

Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, said today:

"I should not be surprised to see the three powers named, or two of them, take the action suggested. There is not the slightest doubt that combined representations, especially if led by President Roosevelt, would have a far-reaching result.

"Japan does not want to go on fighting forever. Yet, even with all the victories won during this war her statesmen would render themselves liable to be most seriously misunderstood, especially in Russia, if they openly suggested in the name of humanity some method whereby the war could be stopped. It would be altogether different, however, at this stage of the war, should a friendly offer, prompted by that sense of humanity which Japan cannot voice for fear of being misunderstood, emanate from the United States and Great Britain, but nothing can be done until the fall of Port Arthur."

Would Please the Czar.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 10.—Hopeless as in the idea of bringing the war to a conclusion, there are those in high quarters, however, who consider there is a bare possibility of ending the conflict by arbitration if such a proposition came directly from Japan. This would appeal strongly to Emperor Nicholas, who is extremely proud of being the author of The Hague conference.

PARIS, Nov. 10.—In the chamber of deputies today M. de Pressense (Socialist) said he hoped France, Great Britain and the United States would soon find means of jointly intervening to stop the slaughter in the far east. He declared the election of President Roosevelt was an auspicious augury of such a movement.

WATSON ARGUES IN MERGER CASE

Leader of Pittsburgh Bar Replies to Arguments of Elihu Root.

W. D. GUTHRIE FOLLOWS HIM

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau,
Press Building,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Nov. 10.

Argument was concluded before Judges Acheson, Dallas and Gray, in the United States court of appeals today in the case of the appeal of the Northern Securities Company from the injunction granted by the United States district court of New Jersey restraining the distribution pro-rata of the stock acquired by the merger three years ago.

David T. Watson of the Pittsburgh bar appeared for the appellees, including the Harriman and Union Pacific interests, and replied to the arguments presented for the appellants yesterday by Elihu Root, former secretary of war.

Mr. Watson emphasized the fact that the Northern Securities was simply a "holding" company, and had not the right to sell the stock. W. D. Guthrie of Pittsburgh followed with a supporting argument.

John G. Johnson then began the concluding argument. Time and again he flayed Edward H. Harriman. Sarcastically referring to the railroad magnate as "a poor little lamb," Mr. Johnson attempted to show that Harriman had entered a pool with the idea of getting every possible share of any winnings, but when, instead, there was a loss, he refused to stand his share of the shortage.

Mr. Johnson referred to the fact that Harriman had not made affidavit to some of the averments in the case, although doing so would greatly have strengthened his side. In attempting to explain this omission Mr. Johnson said:

"Harriman might thus gain control of the Northern Pacific railroad, but Harriman in jail for perjury could not enjoy such control."

The court reserved decision.

The Mammoth and the Mosquito

What has come to pass in thousands of years seems hardly credible. Primitive man, a weakling in comparison to modern man, was able to conquer the huge monsters of thousands of years ago, such as the Mammoth, and to-day they are dead forever; yet the mosquito and fly have never been conquered. It is now time for the scientist to devise methods for killing the mosquito and fly, so that they will go to join the mammoth and the monster lizards. The mosquitoes and flies are dangerous enemies of man because they spread contagion. The mosquito often carries the germ of malaria with his bite. The house-fly spreads germs of disease over our food. These bacterial germs, ever hunting for the weak spot, find a place in our blood, and then we suffer from grip, catarrh, consumption, or malaria.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, chief consulting physician to the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, at Buffalo, N. Y., says: "There would be no grip epidemics, the germs of consumption, or malaria would find no place in the human economy, if the blood were pure, if the lungs, heart and other organs were fed on good blood. Poisons should not be allowed to accumulate in the body; to be safe it is best to take a gentle laxative at least once a week." Such a vegetable laxative as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets contains nothing which could harm the system.

For putting the blood in order, and as a tissue-builder and tonic for those weakened by coughs, colds, catarrh, grip, nothing will build one up quicker than Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. This is a medicine made entirely of roots and herbs, without the use of alcohol.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper covered, or 31 stamps for cloth binding, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Pennsylvania's Plurality for the Republican Ticket Now Reaches 494,525.

RETURNS NOT ALL IN YET

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 10.—Complete but unofficial figures received from every county in the state, with the exception of Allegheny, in which Pittsburgh is situated, but from where a close estimate has been obtained, show that President Roosevelt's plurality in Pennsylvania has reached 494,525, the largest plurality ever given a presidential candidate by any state in the political history of the country.

President Roosevelt's final vote according to final figures, was 830,125 and Judge Parker's 335,600. McKinley's total vote in 1900 was 712,665 and Bryan's 424,-282.

The city of Philadelphia gives Roosevelt a total vote of 227,693 out of 230,713 cast for all candidates.

Returns received from 49 of the 67 counties give Swallow, (Pro.) 23,786 votes. The missing counties in 1900 gave Woolley 6,598. Woolley's total vote in Pennsylvania four years ago was 27,908.

The returns so far received for Debs, (Soc.) and Corregan, (Soc.-Lab.) are so incomplete that no approximate total can be given.

Incomplete figures from all counties in the state give Elkin a plurality of about 410,000 over Thompson, for supreme court judge.

The vote by counties is as follows:

WARD WAS NOT OWNER.

President of Common Council Discovered Surveyor's Mistake Made Him Richer Than He Was.

The councilmanic committee on surveys met yesterday afternoon and recommended a number of street vacations and other routine measures. The two most interesting resolutions were one for the vacation of streets dedicated in a plan of lots of R. B. Ward, president of common council, and the vacation of a portion of Larkins alley.

Mr. Ward's plan of lots adjoins Lemington avenue. The surveyor who prepared the plan included a piece of ground belonging to somebody else, and Mr. Ward, looking over the plan, did not notice that part of the tract plotted was not his. Recently he made arrangements to sell that portion, having bought it in the meantime, after discovering he did not own it, but he was informed that the dedication of part of it for a street still held good, although the land was not his when he gave a part of it as a street to the city. So he asked to have the street vacated. Nobody is injured by the vacation, as Mr. Ward has sold no lots off the plan.

The resolution for the vacation of Larkins alley, from South Thirtieth street 270 feet westwardly, was favorably recommended. Either the Jones & Laighlin Steel Company or the Pittsburgh, Virginia & Charleston railway owns the property on both sides of the alley and both corporations are in favor of the vacation.

OLD HOUSE BURNED OUT.

Defective Flue Supposed to Be the Cause of the Fire.

Fire broke out early last evening in the double two-story frame house, 809 and 811 Webster avenue. One side is occupied by Joseph Santigo, cobbler, and the other by Continazo & Co.'s grocery store. The damage to building and stock is estimated at $900. The house is owned by V. de Luca, the Italian banker. It formerly belonged to the Denny estate.

The fire is supposed to have originated from a defective flue, the building being very old. Santigo's portion was pretty well burned out and Continazo's bed and furniture in the upper story of his part were destroyed. All the occupants were downstairs when the fire broke out.

Physician Faces Serious Charge.

Dr. Lamont B. Smith of Toronto, O., was arrested yesterday at the residence of his mother, 911 West North avenue, Allegheny, by Deputy Sheriff D. F. Vorhees of Toronto. He was taken to Allegheny central station and later removed to the county jail. It is said Smith is wanted at Toronto for an alleged criminal operation that resulted in the death of a prominent woman of that place. A true bill, it is said, has been found by the grand jury.

Ordered to Sue Justice.

Borough Solicitor C. E. Theobald of Millvale was instructed by council Wednesday night to enter suit against Justice A. J. Needling for fines alleged to have been collected during September and October and not turned into the borough treasury.

Two Policemen Dismissed.

Officers Albert Hesser of the central station and John H. Scott of the Center avenue station were dismissed from the service at a meeting of the police trial board yesterday. Both men were charged with drinking while on duty.

ALLEGHENY CITY FILES AN ANSWER

Automobilist Fined for Exceeding Speed Regulation of Eight Miles.

REILLY LOSES HIS LICENSE

The city of Allegheny and Director E. J. McIlvain of the department of public works filed an answer to the suit of the Allegheny County Light Company, which asks an injunction to prevent the city from interfering with its poles or wires.

The defendants state that the only right the company has to operate in Allegheny rests on an ordinance of November 23, 1881. Subsequent ordinances are referred to, and the assertion is made that the city will prove that the company did not at any time lawfully enter any street in Allegheny. It is denied that the city removed any poles of the company, replacing them with its own, and it is asserted that the company erected poles and strung wires without the knowledge of the city, and made false returns to evade the pole tax; that it only paid $67 a year, when it should have paid over $600, and since January 1, 1902, has paid nothing.

A resolution passed by councils on June 29, 1901, directing that the company be forced to comply with the law within 30 days is quoted. Nothing was done under this resolution until Director McIlvain took office. On February 10, 1904, he notified the company to remove its poles and wires and nothing being done, served a second notice on October 11, and later had some of the wires taken down. The court is asked to dismiss the bill of complaint.

Judge Evans fined George Monson $35 and costs for running an automobile over the regulation speed of eight miles an hour. Monson, at the time of his arrest, was in the employ of Titus De Bobula, an architect, who is at present under indictment for the alleged killing of a Duquesne woman by running her down with his machine. This is the first case of the kind to come before the court, who promised that others that come up on a like charge may not fare so well.

Judge Macfarlane revoked the wholesale liquor license of James R. Reilly of 3706 Forbes street. The petition against Reilly was filed by the Anti-Saloon league.

The court finds that on a number of occasions Reilly's employes made sales of liquor and delivered the same on streets and at houses other than the place for which the license was granted. It was also found that Reilly sold liquor to persons who habitually resold it without a license and that this was known to him.

Judge Buffington handed down an opinion in the case of John W. Jenkins of Long Branch, N. J., and Evan L. Jenkins of New York city, against Thomas Mooney of Fifth avenue, McKeesport. The defendant was alleged to have infringed on a patent camera, by which eight or 16 pictures could be taken on one plate. The court holds that the camera used by the defendant is an infringement and that he should be enjoined from using it.

Orphans' court began hearing the testimony in the proceedings brought by Mrs. J. C. Moore and her sister, Mrs. H. B. Rose, daughter of the late Joseph Loughrey, to remove Thomas R. and J. G. Loughrey as executors of their parents' estate.

Hattie Schwartz sues Morgan B. Hall, a brick contractor, for $20,000 for the death of her husband, Harry C. Schwartz, who died from injuries received while working on the Mercy hospital annex.

The will of John C Klein of Baldwin township leaves $80,000 to his wife and children. He provides his wife shall have the homestead during her life and an income of $400 a year as long as she remains a widow, and $100 a year for the support and education of each of his children. He leaves $5,000 to each of his four sons and $4,000 to each of his five daughters. Two sons by a former wife are to receive the proceeds of a $5,000 insurance policy. A stepson is left $5. The balance of the estate is divided among the children.

A petition in involuntary bankruptcy was filed against Joseph E. Norris of Altoona. The petitioners, Fay, Hutchison & Co., Albright Bros., L. F. Hinman & Sons, Curry, Canan & Co., Ltd., and the H. J. White Company, Ltd., all of Altoona, present claims amounting to $1,034.85.

A voluntary petition was filed by Myrtle Bowman Graf, a milliner of Erie, trading under the name of Marion S Monroe and Chic Parisien. She gives her liabilities as $9,190.13 and her assets as $6,335.83.

W. L. Winters was convicted of forging a note for $96, but was not sentenced.

Hugh Richards Davis filed a petition in orphans court asking that the decree of confirmation in the estate of Mary Losey Davis be opened and Henderson D. Graff, the executor, be asked to show why he had not paid $225 interest to the petitioner. Davis alleges that $5,000 had been left him in trust by Mary Losey Davis and that the executor had failed to pay interest on the amount up to date. The court ordered a citation directing Graff to show why the decree of confirmation should not be reopened.

Nannie S. Coope filed an appeal with George Pearson, prothonotary of the supreme court, against the award of the reviewers in the grading and paving of Brighton road, Allegheny.

Executions issued: Thomas J. Maxey vs. Angelo Artho, $1,800; Burns & Gilliman vs. W. J. Keene-ly, $149.44; Nancy B. Snodgrass vs. A. B. Kline, $286; Knoxville Land Improvement Company vs. William C. Palmer, Jr., $1,242.67; William A. Orr vs. Maggie J. and Elmer E. Jack, $119.33.

W. W. Murray, George W. Shaman and John Frill were appointed viewers on the improving of Georgia avenue, Knoxville, and December 3 was set for viewing the improvement and awarding damages and benefits.

TO BOOM BIGGER CITY.

Chamber of Commerce Greater Pittsburgh Committee Will Meet Today.

The chamber of commerce committee in charge of pushing the Greater Pittsburgh project has been called by its chairman, George H. Anderson, to meet at 1 p. m. today. The committee will discuss the best methods of effecting consolidation with boroughs and townships, in accordance with the Greater Pittsburgh bill adopted by the last legislature.

Charles H. Kline, legislator-elect, who is preparing a Greater Pittsburgh bill for submission to the legislature, said yesterday he supposed the commercial bodies interested in the project would leave the task of drafting a bill to the legal advisers of the legislators-elect. Mr. Kline is himself a lawyer. George H. Anderson has already said the bill in existence is good enough for him, intimating that if Mr. Kline's bill contemplates the annexation of boroughs and townships, not on their own vote, but by an election in which they can be swamped by the greater vote of Pittsburgh, the new bill is not a good one.

This Association, consisting of the best Shoe merchants of Allegheny, have at last awakened to the fact that they and their customers have lost a large amount of money in recent years through the use of the Trading Stamps.
Their customers are losing interest in the scheme, for the reason that they have been disappointed in securing just values upon presenting their stamp books for redemption, merchants meanwhile having paid extravagant prices and enormous profits to the Stamp Companies for their articles of little value.

FAMILIAR FACES WILL BE MISSED

Republican Landslide Sweeps Number of Conspicuous Figures from National Capital.

BABCOCK CALLS UP COWHERD

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Tuesday's landslide swept into private life a number of political landmarks who have been conspicuous in the senate and house for many years. With few exceptions the Democratic representatives left in the house are from the south, where there is as yet no danger of the election of Republicans. The northern Democrats who went down to defeat this year were for the most part comparatively new to the house and have not had time or opportunity to make great reputations. Consequently the casualty list contains the names of fewer notable victims than would have been the case had the tide gone against the Republicans. However, the number of men taken out of congress by Tuesday's votes is large enough to materially lessen the offensive and defensive strength of the Democratic party in that body.

Chairman Babcock of the Republican congressional committee got Chairman Cowherd of the Democratic congressional committee on the long-distance telephone from New York and said:

"Hello, Cowherd, how are things coming out in the Fifth Missouri district?"

"Looks pretty bad, Babcock," replied Cowherd cheerfully. "I just got a telegram from my manager, which says that I have been beaten by 500 or 600 votes."

Babcock Is Sorry.

"That's tough, Cowherd, and I am really sorry," came back from New York. "I am having rather uncertain time myself and it looks as though I would need the official count to hold on to my own seat."

The election of a Republican legislature in Missouri would bring to a close the long career in the senate of Francis Marion Cockrell. This will be a sad blow to the latter, who hoped to graduate from the senate into the White House. In point of service in the senate he is second only to Allison of Iowa, having served in that body continuously since March 4, 1875.

J. F. Shafroth, the Democrat from Colorado, who made a sensation in the house a year ago by voluntarily giving up his seat upon hearing that he had been elected by fraudulent votes, received the reward of virtue on Tuesday by being returned to the house.

"I wonder how Shafroth got through when Colorado went Republican?" queried some one at the Democratic headquarters.

"Probably he was elected by fraud again and will have to give up his seat a second time," was the answer.

A number of changes occur in the Massachusetts delegation. Rockwell Hoar, son of Senator Hoar, was elected in the Third district, which has long been represented by John R. Thayer, but who did not time in the Eleventh Massachusetts district the Democrats elected John A. Sullivan over Eugene N. Foss. The latter has made a big stir because of his advocacy of reciprocity, but he was decisively beaten.

Couldn't Down Mudd.

After one of the most remarkable campaigns ever waged for congress, Sidney E. Mudd has again beaten the Democrats in the Fifth Maryland district. Mudd was up against one of the hardest games that ever confronted a Republican candidate, having to contend against an election law that was drafted for the express business of knocking him out, the duplication of names similar to his own on the congressional ticket, in order to confuse the colored voters, and other devices calculated to embarrass him and help the opposition. But he overcame all these obstacles and won.

Clarence Dunn Van Dusen, a picturesque character from Tonopah, Nev., will go back to the mines of his native state after one brief term in Washington, having been beaten by a Republican named Yerington, from Carson City. Another breezy individual, "Jim" Robinson of Indiana, will be missing after March 4. M. J. Wade, the sole Democratic representative from Iowa, went down to defeat before A. F. Dawson, a young man who learned politics while serving as private secretary to Senator Allison.

Chautauqua Alliance Opens.

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—The fifth annual convention of the International Chautauqua alliance began here today. Rev. Frank W. Gunsaulus of Chicago delivered the principal address.

THE THREE RIVERS

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

CINCINNATI, Nov. 10.—The stage of the river at 6 o'clock this evening was 4.8 feet and falling; weather cloudy and showery. Today's departures were: Levi J. Workum, Madison and Courier, Louisville.

LOUISVILLE—River stationary; in canal, 3.1 feet; on falls, .9 of a foot; below locks, 4.1 feet; rain and cooler.

POINT PLEASANT—River 1 foot 4 inches and stationary; weather cloudy and rain.

GREENSBORO—River 5 feet 8 inches and stationary; weather rainy and cool; Hite down Friday and Columbia up.

MORGANTOWN—River 5 feet 2 inches and stationary; weather cloudy.

WARREN—River five-tenths of a foot; weather cloudy and mild.

WHEELING—River 2 feet 3 inches and stationary; weather cloudy, with light rain; down, H. K. Bedford; Parkersburg, noon.

OIL CITY—River 1 foot and stationary. Weather cool and raining.

GALLIPOLIS—River 2 feet 9 inches and stationary. Weather cloudy and threatening rain.

STEUBENVILLE—River 2 feet and stationary. Weather clear and cold.

AWAITING MORE WATER.

Many Towboats With Empties Are Tied Up Along the River.

The stage of water at Davis Island dam at 8 o'clock last night was 2.5 feet and the river was stationary.

All along the river between Pittsburgh and Gallipolis towboats from the Pittsburgh harbor are lying with tows of empties, awaiting favorable water to bring them up the river. The present wet spell is making the rivermen pluck up heart, and if it hangs on for a day or two longer preparations will commence for sending crews down the river and getting the boats and tows up. The following boats are lying at the points mentioned: Lasbells landing, John A. Wood, Harvester and Rival; Morris landing, Kate Bland and Sam Brown; Georgetown, Jim Wood; Clusters Island, Coal City and Creacent; Steubenville, Sam Clark and Charles Jutte; Possum, Ironsides and James Moren; Carpenter bar, Ed. Roberts and Pacific; Horner, Tom Dodsworth and Raymond Horner; Middleport, Finley and Frank Gilmore.

The Ohio Valley Improvement association convention, which meets in Huntingdon, W. Va., next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, will be the most important the association has yet held, and also the largest. Nearly 100 rivermen and others interested in the work of the association are expected to go from Pittsburgh, and there will be two or three times as many more from points down the river. This year, for the first time in the history of the organization, Pittsburgh stands at the head in its financial support, and the Pittsburgh manufacturers have taken hold of the movement, apparently with more interest and determination to succeed in getting an improved river, than ever before. An improved Ohio, with a Panama canal, will place Pittsburgh as near to San Francisco and all Pacific coast harbors as New York and much nearer than Boston. The Panama canal will come up for much consideration at this convention and much new data on the subject will be produced.

Harbor 25 has received a communication from Commander A. P. Osborne, U. S. N., inspector of the Fourteenth lighthouse district, that the Goldenrod, the government lighthouse boat, will start on its trip up the river as soon as there is enough water to permit it. He states in his letter that he doubts whether many new lights can be placed this year, but he will use the appropriation granted him to the best advantage.

Secretary of War Taft has announced that he will render a decision in the Union bridge matter January 1.

The Pittsburgh & Cincinnati Packet line held its annual meeting yesterday and elected all the officers and directors, as follows: James A. Henderson, president and general manager; T. S. Calhoon, vice president; G. W. C. Johnston, secretary-treasurer; A. J. Henderson, general freight and passenger agent; J. F. Ellison, general superintendent.

Capt. T. S. Calhoon of Georgetown and Capt. J. F. Ellison of Cincinnati were in the city yesterday attending the annual meeting of the Pittsburgh & Cincinnati Packet line.

KNOX WILL GET ALL THE VOTES

Durham and Penrose Concede He Will Be Unanimous Choice for Senator.

SPEAKERSHIP FOR WALTON

The Pittsburgh Gazette Bureau, Press Building.
PHILADELPHIA, PA., Nov. 10.

Insurance Commissioner Durham's declaration that Senator P. C. Knox will be the unanimous choice of the Republican legislative caucus for election to the United States senate for the short and long terms was today heartily indorsed by Republican State Chairman Penrose.

Senator Penrose, with a party of friends, departed today for St. Louis. In his party were Congressmen Bingham and Castor, Col. W. R. Andrews, Speaker Walton and Magistrate Devlin. Senator Penrose will go to Florida before returning to Philadelphia. He will be absent several weeks.

"Pennsylvania's plurality for President Roosevelt may reach the 500,000 mark," said Senator Penrose today. "I have read Insurance Commissioner Durham's statement that Mr. Knox will be the unanimous choice of the Republican legislative caucus for both the short and long terms in the United States senate, and I heartily concur in what he says. I have talked with a number of members of the legislature, who think the name of Mr. Knox will be the only one presented in the caucus. It has been generally accepted all over the state that he would soon announce to the senate his candidacy for election, and I have no doubt many persons voted for legislative candidates who were regarded as being favorable to Mr. Knox. I am satisfied he contributed much to the success of the Republican ticket in Pennsylvania. I should not be surprised to see him unopposed in the Republican legislative caucus when his name is formally presented for indorsement as a candidate for senator."

While the leaders do not publicly discuss the matter, it seems to be generally accepted that Speaker Walton will succeed himself in that capacity in the legislature in 1905. It was stated yesterday by one of the leaders that Mr. Walton will be speaker.

The fact that Mr. Walton accompanied Senator Penrose on his trip to St. Louis and Florida is regarded as having some significance in connection with the speakership, and the possible discussion of likely timber for legislative committee chairmanships. CHESTER D. POTTER.

FOR NEW TROLLEY LINE.

Corporations Committee of Allegheny Favors Road Through Evergreen.

The corporations committee of Allegheny councils last night ordered printed an ordinance granting to the Allegheny, Evergreen & Millvale Street Railway Company the right to operate a line along the Evergreen plankroad to the city limits. The measure was amended to the effect that the city be paid $400 a year for the privilege of using the road, and the condition was imposed that in the event of the territory between the city line and Millvale becoming part of the city, the company pay the city 5 per cent of its gross receipts.

The officers of the company are: E. A. Cohen, president; Fred. Gwinner, vice president; John Sauers, treasurer, and Joseph H. Weinberg, secretary.

PARKER MIGHT HAVE WON IN PANAMA OR GUATEMALA

Senors Said to Regret the Election Result—Other Advices Differ.

[Special Cable to The Gazette.]
(Copyright, 1904, by New York Herald Co.)

PANAMA, Nov. 10.—There is a general feeling of disappointment among citizens here over the result of the elections in the United States. Isthmians now believe that their fears are well founded and that the isthmus is doomed. Notwithstanding the assurances of the Washington government, no sanguine expectation is expressed in connection with the visit of Secretary Taft and it appears to be the general belief that nothing practical will result from the proposed trip to Panama.

The Herald's correspondent in Guatemala cables that the news of President Roosevelt's re-election has caused no rejoicing there, as Guatemalans would have preferred a victory for Judge Parker. The citizens of Central America feel apprehensive of Mr. Roosevelt's policy toward Spanish-American Republics, and they say that it is quite natural that they should, when they consider the president's past utterances on subjects most vital to them.

PANAMA, Nov. 10.—Panamans are preparing to celebrate the arrival here of Secretary of War Taft, who with his friends, it is the desire of this government, will be the guests of the republic during their stay here.

In celebration of the election of President Roosevelt, a large number of prominent Panamans tonight serenaded Joseph W. J. Lee, the American charge d'affaires here.

OFFICIALS ARE CHOSEN.

Brownlee and Cramer to Serve in Shadyside-Kiski Championship Game Tomorrow.

The Kiski. and Shadyside academy representatives have agreed on James Brownlee of W. and J. as umpire and Ed Cremer of Greensburg as referee for their annual football game tomorrow afternoon at Saltsburg. If Kiski. wins tomorrow it will have a strong claim on the interscholastic championship. Shadyside would have only Pittsburgh High school in its way if it beats Kiski.

Shadyside will leave on a special train over the West Penn railroad Saturday morning at 10:15 for Saltsburg. A large crowd of students and friends will go to the game.

Despite the rain the Shadyside coaches put the team through signal practice yesterday. At Kiski. the coaches worked the eleven hard, scrimmages being the order of the afternoon. Capt. Harry Gordon reports his team in fine shape and ready to battle for the championship.

MYSTERY IN THEFT.

Man Who Committed Robbery in Express Company Offices Is Uncaught.

The Adams Express Company holdup and robbery is still a mystery. Superintendent of Detectives McQuaide has dropped the case. The managers of the company will continue the investigation to locate the man who shot and robbed Clark B. Sherman while he was at work in the offices of the company Wednesday evening.

Sherman was confined to his home yesterday from the wound in his left arm. He will return to work in a few days.

Rival Lyceums Fail to Agree.

The managers of the Pittsburgh Lyceum and the East End Lyceum failed to agree on terms last night for a Thanksgiving game. Neither will make any concessions, and unless there is a change in their demeanor there will be no game between the rivals this year. Pittsburgh Lyceum had Steubenville scheduled for Saturday, but late last night canceled, to play the Primrose A. C. of Allegheny on the Bluff Saturday.

HERRICK TAKES OFF HIS HAT TO ROOSEVELT

Defeated Candidate for Governor of New York Says It Was Personal Victory.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

ALBANY, N. Y., Nov. 10.—Judge D. Cady Herrick, the defeated candidate of the Democratic party for governor, leaves tomorrow for an extended visit in Havana. His friends say that his health was poor when he accepted the nomination, and that while he stood the vigorous work of the campaign well he is now in need of rest and recuperation. In discussing the result of the election, Judge Herrick said:

Perhaps the Republican party would have won this election in any event. But the magnitude of their victory is due to the personality of President Roosevelt, and it is his victory and not that of the party. Ever since he entered public life as a member of assembly, soon after his graduation from college, he has had a picturesque career and his personality has been an exceeding attractive one to the people. According to my recollection I said practically this in a speech at Elmira. More than a year ago I stated that I thought him the most skillful politician that had occupied the White House in my time. Recent events have strengthened my opinion in that respect. I take off my hat to him.

This is no time for Democrats to weep and moan. Those who are Democrats on principle will continue the fight. Anyone can fight when he is a winner. Let the Democratic party show that it can keep it up when beaten and eventually turn victory into defeat. To Democrats I say: Keep up the organizations we have and strengthen them as much as possible.

WORK MUST BE STOPPED.

Pittsburgh Railways Company Cannot Lay Line Along Howard Avenue.

Director E. J. McIlvain of the Allegheny department of public works yesterday notified the Pittsburgh Railways Company to stop work on the line it is laying along Howard avenue from Elmira street to North avenue. The reason given is that the franchise under which the company intends operating the new line was forfeited on August 15, a year ago, because of the failure of the company to lay its line in accordance with the time limit set by councils.

Ordinance Officer William Penwell was instructed to inform all workmen on Howard avenue to stop work at once and to remove the ties and rails laid there by the company.

New President of Ohio Wesleyan.

DELAWARE, O., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—Dr. Herbert Welch of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., was this afternoon chosen as president of Ohio Wesleyan university to succeed Bishop James W. Bashford. He was the unanimous choice of the board of trustees. He will probably accept and be inaugurated next commencement week, June, 1905.

THE NEW JERSEY IS GIVEN TO THE OCEAN

Uncle Sam's New Battleship Is Christened by the Daughter of Gov. Murphy.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

QUINCY, MASS., Nov. 10.—The battleship New Jersey was successfully launched today in the presence of a large number of guests, including Gov. Franklin Murphy of New Jersey, Gov. John L. Bates of Massachusetts, former Secretary of the Navy John D. Long; Rear Admiral Harris of Washington, D. C.; Rear Admiral George F. Wild, commandant of the Charlestown navy yard; Commander Boutakoff, naval attache of the Russian embassy at Washington, and Congressmen McNary, Powers and Tirrell of Massachusetts. The battleship was christened by Mrs. William B. Kinney, daughter of Gov. Murphy.

The New Jersey was built for a speed of at least 19 knots. PEELEN AND THE PEELER.

Homestead Police Gallantly Defends Heavy Negress from Her Husband.

Sergeant Mellon of the Homestead police station spent a bad half hour yesterday evening in gallant defense of "Mandy" Peelen, a 300-pound negress, from the onslaught of her husband, who sought to beat her, even in the sacred precincts of the police station.

The sergeant was behind his desk when Mandy came in, out of breath. She pantingly told the sergeant that her husband had beaten her. Then Peelen himself, rushed in. He clinched with his wife and tried to hit her, but the sergeant threw him out of the room. Again Peelen tackled his better half and again Mellon threw him out. When Peelen toed the scratch the third time the sergeant locked him up, and Mandy, giving thanks, departed for her domicile.

AMBASSADOR MEYER MAY ENTER CABINET

Massachusetts Diplomat Might Be Called to the President's Official Family.

[Special Telegram to The Gazette.]

BOSTON, Nov. 10.—It is learned tonight from people close to the administration that Ambassador George Von L. Meyer of this state is slated for the next place in Roosevelt's cabinet, after Mr. Cortelyou assumes charge of the postoffice department and certain other cabinet officials retire. Following this there will be some changes in the diplomatic service, and some of the leading diplomats will be shifted to better places.

President Roosevelt does not believe in diplomats occupying a post too long, or getting into a rut, hence he will make some changes, though these will be not only to the advantage of service but to the incumbents as well. Gov. Bates of Massachusetts could have had a cabinet position, according to the best information, if he had been re-elected, but it is doubtful if he could afford to accept owing to the expense of living in Washington. However, and it is known positively, that Meyer will be tendered a portfolio.

Kline was asleep when killed. The shot awakened Mrs. Easton, who fled from the room. Easton did not attempt to attack his wife. The coroner's jury brought in a verdict that Kline had been shot by Easton feloniously and with malice aforethought.

PRESIDENT'S MENAGERIE PARADES IN GOTHAM

Two Fierce Looking Baboons and a Handsome Zebra Its Striking Features.

[By Private Wire to The Gazette.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—With policemen from the Tremont and Bronx Park stations forming an escort and guard of honor, the collection of animals presented by King Menelik to President Roosevelt today made an interesting parade from Fordham to the New York zoological park.

At the head of the procession was Saleb Bin Saleb, who came to this country with the animals. In his charge were two Galada baboons, natives of Abyssinia, with fierce-looking faces and manes resembling those of lions. These baboons are very rare, and are now the only ones of their kind in the zoological park.

Led by an attendant of the park came Gravy's zebra, which is a particularly fine specimen of its kind, no others being on exhibition in this country. It differs from other zebras in that its stripes are much finer, and its white hair much cleaner looking. The zebra is almost as large as an ordinary mule.

Other animals in the parade were a handsome lion cub, five Arctic foxes, and the largest pair of ostriches ever seen by keepers at the park. The white foxes are a gift to the zoological society from A. H. Dunham.

SHEVLIN IS PLAYED DESPITE LAMENESS

Other Yale Men in Bad Shape, but Yale Offers No Apology Before Big Game.

ENTHUSIASM AT PRINCETON

[SPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE GAZETTE.]

NEW HAVEN, CONN., Nov. 10.—With several of the players wearing outing caps while running through signals because they are suffering from "grip," colds in the head, the Yale varsity eleven spent two hours in light, snappy practice, but without any scrimmages today. Only the lightest kind of practice will be held tomorrow and the eleven will leave for New York in the evening.

Neither the coaches nor Trainer Murphy is offering any apology before the game for the team because they have faith in the capacity of the eleven, but it is well recognized that several of the men are not in the best form for a hard game.

Shevlin was in the lineup today for the first time since Saturday. His limp was still pronounced. He left the field wearing an overcoat over his sweater and a hat on his head. Hoyt and Owsley also wore caps, both suffering from colds.

The open practice between the first subs and the second was a lively scrimmage, featured by sensational quarterback runs by Hutchinson and his runs up the field with the ball caught on kick-off.

There is no truth in the report that Ortmayer, sub fullback, suffered a broken collar bone yesterday. He was on the field today in uniform, his injury being only a bruise. Surprisingly little enthusiasm is noted among the undergraduates, less than 300 coming to the field today to sing and cheer.

Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—In a drizzling rain and under a gloomy sky that could not quench their enthusiasm, the Tigers rallied this afternoon to watch the final open practice of their team before Saturday's game. Everyone was hopeful and each man contributed a willing mite to the ringing cheers of encouragement that spurred on the men to doing their very best, but the gathering was not a light-hearted one.

A long signal drill constituted the bulk of the work and even in the scrimmage a great deal of time was given to small points of play, such as tackling and interference running. Neither the offense nor defense was put to any severe test. After the scrimmage some attention was given to punting.

The punting that may be done against Yale is a very uncertain quantity on the reckoning of Princeton's prospects, but Miller's work of late has established some confidence in his ability.

Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—The work of the Harvard team today was ragged and the plays were run off listlessly and with no great attempt at a fighting spirit. The varsity scored three times, but the work was marred by an excessive number of fumbles, for which all of the back field were equally responsible. The defense of the varsity was like so much wind, and they were unable to stop the weak second team from crossing their goal line.

That the offense of the team is still poor was shown by its inability to make its distance. Several times it was held for downs by the second, when to gain a few yards meant another score. The practice was long and the men were worked to their hardest.

Barney, who played in the West Point game, has been relegated to the freshman squad. Kerans, who played quarter on the second, kept up his brilliant work of Wednesday and his work alone made it possible for the second to score.

The varsity scored by straight line plunges merely, as the coaches are devoting all their energies to strengthen the offense, realizing that unless the team has scoring ability it will be unable to put up any sort of game at all at Yale. Norton, Shaw and Schoelkopf were sent into the lineup against the second to find any faults which can be corrected before the Yale game.

The usual number of coaches were out assisting Wrightington, including Malcolm, Donald, Bob Kernan, Lewis, Percy Haughton, Norton, Shaw, Schoelkopf and Jack Hallowell.

OAKMONT TEAM THE CHAMPION

Defeats Allegheny Country Club in Play-Off for Title—Some Surprising Results.

BIG CROWD WATCHED GAME

In a match of intense interest in which the zest of competition climaxed, Allegheny Country club was defeated yesterday afternoon by the Oakmont Country club, 9 to 4, in the play-off of a tie, and Oakmont thereby won the team championship in the Western Pennsylvania Golf association for 1904. The match was played on the neutral links of the Pittsburgh Golf club in Schenley park, and despite the drizzle and bleak day, brought out quite a gallery of enthusiasts who tramped over miles of wet grass in the wake of the contestants. E. M. Byers and O. D. Thompson won their matches for Allegheny and W. C. Fownes and J. S. Martin for Oakmont.

No match has attracted to it hereabouts so much attention as the one of yesterday, as the two clubs in competition are the keenest rivals for golf honors. There are six clubs out of the ten composing the association which are represented by teams. They are Allegheny Country club, Edgeworth club, Edgewood Golf club, Pittsburgh Field club, Pittsburgh Golf club and the Oakmont Country club. Each club during the season plays two matches with each of the other teams. The championship for a few years after the organization of the association in 1899 was won by Allegheny, but since 1901 the Highland Golf club, now the Oakmont club, with a new course, has captured the honor. Both Allegheny and Oakmont had a clean slate this year, except each had won a match from the other and the tie of yesterday resulted.

The closeness of yesterday's contest is hardly indicated by the score of 9 to 4. A glance at the individual results shows that in the matches, that two men on each team won their matches, and that Oakmont's victory was due to the larger margins of its winners. The defeat of Allegheny came from unexpected sources, as it was thought that of their opponents Oakmont's winners, W. C. Fownes and J. S. Martin, were the more probable to fall. H. R. Rea, who was pitted against Mr. Martin, was far from well, and at the last moment an unsuccessful effort was made to locate J. E. Porter to take his place. Mr. Martin holds the amateur record for the course, 67.

The match of the day, which had the advance interest, was the one between E. M. Byers and W. C. Fownes, two players of national caliber. At the end of play Byers had a margin of two holes on his rival. Ordinarily Byers would have been a hot favorite, but the fact that he has not been at the top of his game this fall and Fownes has been at his best, victory was looked for in the latter quarter. Neither was at his best yesterday, as their 78 and 79 shows. It was a ding-dong match. At the turn Fownes stood 1 up at the homeward journey. Byers went into the lead at the twelfth hole and was never after headed, winning the home hole with 2 up. Their cards were:

E. M. Byers—
Out..... 4 5 5 4 4 4 6 6 4—42
In..... 4 4 4 5 5 3 4 4 3—36—78

W. C. Fownes, Jr.—
Out..... 5 5 4 4 5 4 4 4 4—39
In..... 4 5 5 4 5 4 4 4 5—40—79

The best match of the day was the one between David Baxter and G. A. Ormiston. Neither of these players has been defeated in their matches on their teams this year. Ormiston is a player of national fame, defending the great Travis this year. Baxter, who played the fastest golf of the day, had only played on the course once before. He led going out and was 1 up at the turn. His biggest lead was at the seventh hole, when he was 2 up. Ormiston squared the match at the tenth hole and took the lead at the twelfth. Baxter brought the match all square at the fifteenth, the remaining holes being halved. The brilliant work was at the fourth hole, where Baxter holed his mashie for a three and Ormiston ran down his 150-foot putt for a half. Their cards were:

David Baxter—
Out..... 4 4 4 3 3 3 4 5 5—35
In..... 5 4 5 5 4 3 4 3 4—37—72

G. A. Ormiston—
Out..... 5 4 4 3 3 3 5 4 5—36
In..... 4 4 4 5 4 4 4 5 4—38—72

O. D. Thompson won his match from C. B. Fownes after being 3 down at the turn. R. P. Nevin, Jr., was 2 up on H. C. Fownes at the turn and the latter had the match squared at the end of play. W. C. Fownes had J. F. Byers 3 down at the turn, and then annexed two more on the homeward journey. J. S. Martin was 1 up on H. R. Rea, going out, but added three more coming in. The individual results were:

ALLEGHENY PREPS. ADMITTED.

Makes Fifth Club in Interscholastic Hockey League—Wilkinsburg Elects Fleeger Captain.

The Allegheny Preparatory school was yesterday admitted to the Interscholastic Hockey league, thus removing the chances of the Allegheny High school from making the fifth club in the league this season. High school would have been admitted had the Preps. not elected to enter.

The season will open the first week in December and the following schools will start in the race for the championship: Shadyside academy, Pittsburgh High school, East Liberty academy, Wilkinsburg High school and Allegheny Preps.

Allegheny High school was in a small school league last season in Allegheny and did well. It is making a strong fight to get into the Interscholastic league, and if the officials deem it expedient to farther expand the league Allegheny may be admitted.

Allegheny Prep. will elect a captain early next week. Lyons of Sewickley was captain of last year's team.

The Wilkinsburg High school hockey candidates yesterday elected Bert Fleeger captain of the seven. The candidates are enthusiastic and they are confident of turning out a seven that will be fighting among the leaders all season.

STATE'S ELEVEN WILL BE HERE

Illness of Captain Forkum Will Not Prevent the Team from Carrying Out Engagement.

MANY GOING TO PRINCETON

The Thanksgiving day football game between the W. U. P. and State college elevens which it was feared would be cancelled owing to the illness of Capt. Karl Forkum of State, is to be played. The telegram from Bellefonte published in this paper yesterday morning announcing that Capt. Forkum was at his home in New Castle suffering with a severe attack of pneumonia and that it was probable that all of State's remaining games would be cancelled caused quite a scare, not only among the W. U. P. players and followers, but among other lovers of the gridiron game. The authorities at State college were at once communicated with and last evening a telegram was received stating that the athletic committee had decided to play out the schedule and that the State eleven would be here on Thanksgiving day in good shape to meet the W. U. P. team.

The early report did not alarm State college men here. C. E. Aull, who represents State in this city in athletic matters, expressed the opinion that his college would not sidestep a game on account of the loss of one man. He has hopes that Forkum will be able to play in the big game here.

"State will be in bad shape for the Dickinson game on Williamsport Saturday," said he, "but I think that Coach Golden will be able to get the boys into good condition for Thanksgiving day, which is two weeks off. Dickinson has one of the best teams in the state this year. The fact that it played a tie with Annapolis and the Navy beat State shows that we need all our men in line for Saturday. With the team crippled our chances will not be bright, but State will make a good fight. It was never known to quit. After Saturday it will have nothing to do but rest for Thanksgiving day and I think it will make a good finish."

Western university men were well pleased when they heard the news from State college. Coach Mosse said: "I told you so." The head coach of W. U. P. says that State's athletics are well-handled. He expects a hard fight for the championship on November 24. Coach Mosse left yesterday for Detroit, where he is to meet Michigan football team and accompany it to Chicago as the special guest of Coach Yost, and he will be at the side lines with Yost at tomorrow's big game.

Pittsburgh will be well represented at the Yale-Princeton game to be played at Princeton tomorrow. Among those who will see the game are T. S. Baillie, J. M. Baillie, T. S. Schultz, J. R. Robinson, E. T. Noble, Frank Flinn, Arthur Flinn, B. H. Evans, D. C. Byers, E. M. Byers, J. F. Byers, H. D. McCandless, Hay Walker, W. A. Steinmeyer, A. G. McConnell, T. A. McConnell, Col. BETTING EVEN MONEY.

Speculators Like Both Princeton and Yale—Triangle Club May Come.

The betting contingent in Pittsburgh was yesterday getting its money out at even odds on the Princeton-Yale game tomorrow at Princeton. Barney Harkins placed several bets at even money, taking the Princeton end. It is difficult for the bettor, unless he has a decided preference, to pick the winning college, and there are many who will take the short end.

The usual number of Pittsburghers, alumni of both institutions, will go to Princeton to take in the contest.

Arrangements have been completed for the Princeton club's smoker to be held in the Union club at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Local alumni are feeling very confident of a victory over Yale and reports will be received at the smoker over private wire.

Negotiations are in progress for bringing the Triangle club to Pittsburgh during grand opera week, when two performances will be given, an evening and a matinee, March 17 and 18. The annual banquet will also be held on the evening of March 18.

A famous New York Hatter makes
Oetting's Hats

In looking over an old scrap-book containing advertisements of this store, I found one dated March 25th, 1898, which says:—

"The designer and maker of our hats is famous for the superiority of his product.

"He will make Oetting's Hats famous if he continues making such handsome hats as our Court derby."

Surely this was prophetic, and the realization of the prophecy is immensely gratifying.

The same hatter who made the Court derbies in 1898, is still making them for us today, and I am certain that all of you who have been wearing them all these years, will agree with me when I say that better hats than these can't be produced.

Court Derbies are $4 and $3.

Next best are the Paragon and Acme brands at $2.25 and $1.75.

SOCIETY

AN out-of-town wedding of unusual interest to Pittsburgh and Allegheny society is that of Miss Harriet A. Dick, the only daughter of Col. Samuel B. Dick of Meadville, and Joseph McKnight Speer of Pittsburgh which is dated for Monday, December 19. As the date is more than a month in the future no definite plans have as yet been made, but the wedding will take place in Meadville. Mr. Speer is at present in New York and will not return until next week. The engagement of Miss Dick and Mr. Speer was announced only a short time ago. The bride-elect is a Farmington girl and has hosts of friends in Pittsburgh and Allegheny. She is a niece of Mrs. David A. Stewart of Lincoln avenue, Allegheny, with whom she has frequently visited. She is also a cousin of Mrs. Hermon Griffin of McKee place, Oakland, at whose wedding she was maid of honor. Miss Dick was the guest of Miss Leila Laughlin last spring, and at that time was extensively entertained by her friends. Mr. Speer is a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Z. Speer of South Dallas avenue, Point Breeze, and a brother of Mrs. George M. Laughlin, Jr., and Mrs. William H. Mercur, both of the East End.

"That the joint committee of women's clubs of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity shall herewith resolve itself into the joint committee of women's clubs for Pittsburgh playgrounds and vacation schools, and the joint committee of women's clubs of Allegheny playgrounds and vacation schools, respectively. That the officers elected at the annual meeting of the joint committee of women's clubs of Pittsburgh, Allegheny and vicinity held October 15, shall herewith present their respective resignations. That the delegates composing the present joint committee shall adjourn to meet immediately as two separate joint committees representing the two cities. Upon organization the two committees shall elect temporary chairmen and secretaries and decide upon election of officers and by-laws."

New Club for Wilkinsburg.

One hundred representative citizens of Wilkinsburg met in the Singer mansion last night to discuss the formation of the Centenary Social club. The originators of the plan are R. A. Balph, James A. Wilson, W. L. Hamnett, H. S. Evans, P. J. Pierte, W. E. Evans, James Balph, Dr. J. S. Rigg, James A. Speele and John W. McGregor. A temporary organization committee was elected, consisting of Roland A. Smith, president; Prof. A. S. Hunter, vice president; Edward M. Doty, treasurer, and John W. McGregor, secretary. A house committee, permanent organization committee, committee on rules, and property committee were appointed. The next meeting will be held on Thursday, November 17, at the Singer mansion, where the committee on organization has been promised a permanent meeting place by the owner, Mr. Bowler. The first rule of the club will be that it shall be strictly a gentleman's club, and that no liquor be allowed on the premises.

To Furnish the Hospital.

The proceeds of the euchre given yesterday afternoon in the Pittsburgh conservatory of music will be used to furnish the new Eye, Ear and Throat hospital, which the managers hope to have ready for occupancy early next year. The euchre was given under the auspices of the board of managers of the hospital, who expect to realize $500 as the result of their work. Fifty prizes were awarded, among the winners being Mrs. John Francis Hawley, who won the head prize, and Mrs. W. I. Mustin, Mrs. Arthur Dillinger, Mrs. H. J. Watkins, Mrs. John Hibberd, Mrs. Clara Trimble and Mrs. William Semple.

Pittsburgh Club Reception.

The board of governors of the Pittsburgh club will give the annual club reception on the evening of Friday, December 30, in the ballroom of the clubhouse. The New Year's eve ball at the club is a time-honored institution, and as that date is already reserved it is understood that there will be no other important social functions on the last evening of the old year. The board of governors this year includes the president, William Nimick Frew; Vice President George W. Guthrie, Secretary-Treasurer Walter S. Mitchell and G. Blair Painter, Henry Robinson Rea, J. Walter Rhodes, W. P. Price, B. F. Jones, Jr., and Charles A. Painter. AN OBJECT LESSON

In a Restaurant.

A physician puts the query: Have you never noticed in any large restaurant at lunch or dinner time the large number of hearty, vigorous old men at the tables; men whose ages run from sixty to eighty years; many of them bald and all perhaps gray, but none of them feeble or senile?

Perhaps the spectacle is so common as to have escaped your observation or comment, but nevertheless it is an object lesson which means something.

If you will notice what these hearty old fellows are eating, you will observe that they are not munching bran crackers nor gingerly picking their way through a menu card of new fangled health foods; on the contrary they seem to prefer a juicy roast of beef, a properly turned loin of mutton, and even the deadly broiled lobster is not altogether ignored.

The point of all this is that a vigorous old age depends upon good digestion and plenty of wholesome food and not upon dieting and an endeavor to live upon bran crackers.

There is a certain class of food cranks who seem to believe that meat, coffee and many other good things are rank poisons, but these cadaverous sickly looking individuals are a walking condemnation of their own theories.

The matter in a nutshell is that if the stomach secretes the natural digestive juices in sufficient quantity, any wholesome food will be promptly digested; if the stomach does not do so, and certain foods cause distress, one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets after each meal will remove all difficulty, because they supply just what every weak stomach lacks, pepsin, hydro-chloric acid, diastase and nux.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets do not act upon the bowels and in fact are not strictly a medicine, as they act almost entirely upon the food eaten, digesting it thoroughly and thus giving the stomach a much needed rest and an appetite for the next meal.

Of people who travel, nine out of ten use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, knowing them to be perfectly safe to use at any time and also having found out by experience that they are a safeguard against indigestion in any form, and eating as they have to, at all hours and all kinds of food, the traveling public for years have pinned their faith to Stuart's Tablets.

All druggists sell them at 50 cents for full-sized packages and any druggist from Maine to California, if his opinion were asked, will say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the most popular and successful remedy for any stomach trouble.

FEED THE EDITOR

Best Way to Get Good Copy.

Not everyone knows what food to turn to in case of sickness or decline in health.

A man in Elgin, Ill., says: "My attention was first called to Grape-Nuts some time ago, when brother, who is an editor in Chicago, broke down from overwork and nervous prostration set in and then paralysis.

The expert specialist (the physician in charge) gave special instructions as to the food and put him on Grape-Nuts and cream.

"He began to recuperate quickly and there was a very marked showing of the strength and value of the food. He soon got well and has been at his work ever since, and never shows any further signs of breaking down, although he works harder than he did before, but he is well and properly fed and his brain and nerves kept nourished with the right kind of food—that is Grape-Nuts and cream." Better Have the Carpets Dyed

Every Woman Should Know About the New Process Which Makes Old Carpets Look Like New.

Unless you have seen it for yourself you can have no idea of how perfect are the results obtained by Linnekin's new process of dyeing rugs and carpets. Unless a carpet is absolutely worn out there is no need of going to the expense of buying a new one.

No matter how badly faded a carpet or rug may be, you can have it made to look like new by the Linnekin process. If you wish to change the color scheme of your room you can secure any desired shade by having the Linnekin Company do the work and the result will be so perfect that no one could tell your old carpet from a new one.

The expense of having carpets or rugs dyed by this process is a mere trifle. And it is no more trouble than ordering a new carpet. Just call up the Linnekin Company and they will send a representative to you, furnish an estimate and relieve you of all bother about the matter. Just state what you wish and the Linnekin Company will do the rest, guaranteeing perfect results.

NEW YORK STOCKS WERE ACTIVE AND IRREGULAR

Specialties Closed at Large Gains and the Regular List at Small Declines—Boom in Crucible the Local Feature.

By JOHN O. BAGLIN, Financial Editor.

The transactions in the New York stock market yesterday were about 700,000 shares smaller than on Wednesday and the course of prices was irregular, but on the whole it may be said that the market acted well. London again sent a generally higher range of quotations for American securities, the largest advances being in United States Steel and Missouri, Kansas & Texas stocks. Professional traders, however, took advantage of the initial strength to sell, and this temporarily checked the buying for account of the general public. One prominent speculator is credited with having sold 75,000 shares of U. S. Steel common and preferred and an equal amount of other stocks which he had been bulling. Under this selling Steel common declined a point to 26⅝, and the preferred lost 1 per cent, selling at 84½. With the exception of a few specialties the whole list reacted an average of at least 1 per cent, which was really significant considering the extent of the rise this week, but which, in the present sensitive condition of the market at this level aroused a very natural fear that a genuine reaction which all have been looking for during the past few weeks was at hand.

The reactionary tendency of the market was checked toward noon by heavy purchases of Southern Railway, which were said to be for Morgan account, and by the strength displayed by that Gould group of stocks, which have all along been laggards in the upward movement. The low-priced issues like Wabash common and preferred, Texas & Pacific, and Missouri, Kansas & Texas, were all active and scored good gains.

The most prominent feature of the afternoon dealings was the great advance in stocks like Delaware & Hudson, which rose to 187½, and Delaware, Lackawanna & Western, which jumped 9 points to 334 and closed at a net gain for the day of [illegible] the time [illegible] & Ohio [illegible] rose 1[illegible] to 1½, and closed at the top. United States Steel issues became more active than at any previous time during the session and recovered much of the early loss. Colorado Fuel & Iron advanced to 44 and closed at 43¾ bid. United States Realty rose from 68⅞ to 72, and Pacific Mail jumped from 42 to 48¼. The response of the general railroad list to this renewal of strength on the part of the industrials and specialties was rather sluggish, and with the exception of the Gould issues final prices were lower than the day before. The net changes, however, were slight, and the market closed steady to firm.

There was very little news to affect values. Call money remained unchanged at 2 to 2½ per cent. The London rate of discount remained unchanged at 3 per cent, and this was construed as meaning that no special effort would be made to attract gold from this side. Nevertheless some attention was given to a renewal of the talk, which is becoming more general, of the probability of the government withdrawing from $20,000,000 to $30,000,000 of its deposits from the banks within the next few weeks. The news relating to the condition of the iron trades was all favorable. A point of interest is the action that will be taken with pool prices for steel rails and billets. An advance in the latter and a reduction in the former, which would equalize the two, is apparently the view taken in Pittsburgh, but in the east there seems to be a growing impression that there will be no change in the price of steel rails for the first quarter of 1905 at least.

On the Pittsburgh stock exchange the volume of business was well maintained, but the distribution was not so good. More than half the total business was in Crucible Steel. The common stock was active and buoyant, advancing from 8 to 9¼ on transactions footing up 5,570 shares, and the final sale was at the top price of the day. The preferred on sales of 2,555 shares advanced to and closed at 45. United States Steel common and preferred were less active than for some days past. The former closed ½ per cent lower and the preferred ¼ per cent higher for the day. River Coal preferred was the strongest of its group, advancing to 27½ and closing at 27¼ bid, a net gain of 1¼. The Common advanced to and closed at 10½, which was ⅜ a share above the last previous sale. Pittsburgh Coal common was dull, but steady at 17⅛. The preferred ranged between 76¼ and 77, and closed at 77 bid. Pittsburgh Brewing common was fairly active and closed a fraction higher, while the preferred closed a fraction lower. National Fire Proofing common and preferred were dull but firm and closed a fraction higher. Westinghouse Air Brake was strong, advancing from 138 to 139. Electric first preferred sold at 92½, an advance of $2 a share over the last previous sale, while the second preferred, after selling at 87, declined to and closed offered at 86¼. American Window Glass preferred sold at 38, an advance of 2 points, while United States Glass was unchanged at 48. There was nothing doing in bonds. Pig iron warrants were in good demand and firm, but none changed hands. The general market closed active and firm, and in most instances at the best prices of the day.

LIBERTY AVENUE PROPERTY SOLD

D. Gregg McKee Buys Carlisle lot at 826 for $85,000.

GOOD SALE IN THE EAST END

The most interesting deal in many respects announced for the week is the sale of the R. M. Carlisle holdings at 826 Liberty avenue for $85,000. The buyer is D. Gregg McKee of the Pittsburgh Trust Company, and the deal was handled by John D. Shannon of the old firm of Meighan & Shannon of Allegheny. The lot is peculiar shaped, having a frontage of 17 feet on the south side of Liberty avenue, opposite Ninth street and running back on an angle to Strawberry alley, where it fronts 20 feet. On one side the depth is 141 feet and on the other 125 feet. The building is an old three-story brick structure of little value and the first floor is occupied by a shooting gallery. The property is situated about midway between the Seventh Avenue hotel and the Academy of Music and only one square from Smithfield street. The holdings of the late B. F. Jones adjoin it on one side. The purchase is interesting, as it is the first deal made in that locality for weeks and helps to fix a value on property nearby, some of which is likely to change owners soon. The Carlisle lot figures at the rate of $4,474 a foot for the Liberty avenue front age. This price, considering the depth of the lot and its frontage in Strawberry alley, is considered reasonable. The last sale in the neighborhood was that of the Braman lot at 801 Liberty avenue to G. A. Samuels for $110,000, or $5,300 a front foot, the lot being 20x110 feet and at the corner.

Bought Fine Corner Residence.

The residence property of Attorney W. L. Sloan at the northwest corner of Jackson street and Sheridan avenue, Nineteenth ward, has been sold for $42,500. This is one of the finest residence lots in the neighborhood, the lot being 104x180 feet and the residence itself, which was built 18 months ago, costing $60,000. The house is a center hall dwelling, containing 12 rooms and finished very handsomely.

A trade deal involving property valued at $42,000 has been made through the office of Edwin E. Klein of Allegheny. For James G. B. McAuley they sold 15 lots, 45x150 fee. each, in the Loretta plan, Second ward, Sewickley, for $30,000. The lots face in both sides of Chadwick avenue, near White avenue, and were secured by Mr. McAuley in an exchange several months ago. In part payment for these lots he received five houses on 63d, 209 feet, in Minnesota street, Twenty-third ward, valued at $12,000.

Through the Real Estate Trust Company Ernest W. Beach sold to J. Well 80x200 feet on the south side of Bartlett street, between Murray avenue and Wightman street, Twenty-second ward, for $10,000 cash. Mr. Well will build a $25,000 residence on the site at once.

The Aronson Realty Company sold to Thomas C. McCloy a 10-room brick house on 40x100 feet, on the south side of St. Clair street, Nineteenth ward, for $10,500. The owner bought for a home. The same company has leased to a well-known caterer a storeroom in Diamond street, near Wood street, for five years at $2,500 a year. The lessee will remodel the building and start a quick lunch restaurant.

Two Important Deals Closed.

Two deeds registered yesterday were of more than passing interest. One was the transfer of the property of the Duquesne school sub-district of the First ward to Frederick W. Mueller, president of the Pittsburgh Brewing Company, for $100,000. The property, which measures 90.5x199 feet, is in the west corner of Second avenue and Short street and the sale was published exclusively in The Gazette several weeks ago. It is interesting to note that the property was bought for school purposes on October 2, 1849, from Samuel Stackhouse, the directors of the school then being John E. Bell, Thomas McFadden, F. H. Eaton, W. L. Havens, Robert Wightman and John White. Henry W. Schmidt is president and Robert A. Riley secretary of the present board. What to do with the First ward school when the old building is given up next July has not been decided and no announcement has been made of the disposition of the school property by Mr. Mueller.

The other deed referred to was the transfer from George I. Whitney to the Fort Pitt bank property on the south side of Fourth avenue near Market street for $225,000. The lot is in two parcels, one 22.6x85 feet facing in Fourth avenue, and the other, 22.3x85 feet, facing in Third avenue. The purchase price includes all the bank fixtures and finishings.

Historic School House Comes Down.

The old Soho school house in the bend of Fifth avenue near Robinson street is being razed to make room for a lodge and store building. The building has an interesting history, although it has been used of late only as a negro tenement house. The Soho school was graded in 1854, being one of the two schools in Pitt township, and having 50 pupils enrolled that year. Later a $3,000 addition was built to the old school house. In 1867 the districts were divided and the school was annexed to the Oakland district. Pitt township consolidated with the city in 1868 and formed the Fourteenth ward. In 1870 the school enrolled 500 pupils and it was found necessary to move to the present site near Soho street. The old building was known for years after as Devereaux's annex. Among the prominent families who sat on benches in the building were the Magees, Moorheads, Zugg and Dalzells.

Wylie avenue: McKiveen & White sold for Frank H. Steinbrink to Charles Luke 2902-2904 Wylie avenue, two brick houses on 31x100 feet, for $5,400; for Mr. Steinbrink, a two-story brick house in Kirkpatrick street, Thirteenth ward, for $3,600; for P. Richardson to Magnus C. Hohman, 20x100 feet in Lawson street, same ward, for $600.

Lawrenceville: Joseph P. Rankin & Co. sold for P. L. Brisbine to Thomas Dalzell a frame house on 20x100 feet in Fifty-seventh street, near Butler street, Eighteenth ward, for $2,000. They also sold for Mrs. Mathilda Wise to Mrs. Mary F. Rankin 54x150 feet in Eureka street, Thirty-first ward, for $1,800.

Minor Deals in Real Estate.

Boggs avenue: Borland & Waddell sold for Charles A. Salzman to Christine Heinsius a store and house on 40x126 feet in Boggs avenue for $4,000.

Bartlett street: W. J. Tener & Co. sold for C. E. Schade to S. B. Hubley 50x100 feet on the south side of Bartlett street, near Shady avenue, Twenty-second ward, for $5,000.

Wellesley avenue: Grant McCargo and Charles R. Miller sold to Nellie G. Craig a new reception hall brick house on 30x103 feet on the northwest side of Wellesley avenue, near Melvin street, Nineteenth ward, for $8,150.

Howley street: William Buck sold to Anthony Schumaker an improved lot, 20x97 feet, on the north side of Howley avenue, Sixteenth ward, for $2,500.

Gerrit street: Mary C. White sold to Walter L. Austin an improved lot, 28x120 feet, on the east side of Gerrit street, near Idlewild street, Twenty-first ward, for $4,300.

Morgan street: M. Kelly has sold to Patrick Richardson an improved lot, 17x94 feet, on the west side of Morgan street, Thirteenth ward, for $2,100.

Building permits were issued in Allegheny yesterday to E. P. Schatzman for the erection of a two-story brick dwelling at 708 First street, to cost $6,000; to W. Langfit, for two two-story brick veneer dwellings on Fleming avenue, to cost $3,000 each; to W. J. Langfit for a two-story brick veneer dwelling on Bailey street, to cost $3,000.

A. V. Parnell took out two permits at the Allegheny bureau of building inspection for two two-story and attic brick veneer dwellings in the Walker plan of lots in the Eleventh ward, one to cost $8,000 and the other $6,000.

Thomas McCaffrey sold for Julia Duffy heirs to Theresa Miller lot 24x100 feet, with frame dwelling, No. 3431 Ligonier street, Sixteenth ward, for $1,600 cash; for John Poxon to E. T. Lippert, lot 24x130 feet with frame dwelling, on Sedgewick street, Millvale, for $2,000 cash; for A. K. Stevenson for R. R. Forney to E. T. Lippert vacant lot 16x130 feet at Lincoln and Sedgewick streets, Millvale, for $1,000.

The following permits were issued by the Pittsburgh bureau of building inspection yesterday: Michael Cooney, four frame dwellings, on Neville and Boundary streets, Fourteenth ward, to cost $2,800; Eugeneto Bonagvolia, three-story brick store and apartment house, 18 Congress street, Seventh ward, to cost $6,000; E. W. Houston, three-story brick apartment house, Callowhill and St. Clair streets, Nineteenth ward, to cost $25,000; Pittsburgh-Buffalo company, stable, 2810 Liberty street, Twelfth ward, to cost $5,000.

MARKET LINES NOTED DECIDED IMPROVEMENT

Cheese Situation Is Disturbing Some Dealers, and Prices Expected to Advance.

All lines of trade in the local market noted a decided improvement yesterday. Produce and fruit dealers and wholesale grocery men announced a better feeling and an improved day of business. Prices held firm in everything and there was not a change in a single quotation for the day.

The cheese situation is beginning to concern some dealers. Advices from Utica, N. Y., state that the make of cheese in that section, which is one of the most important, is practically ended. Most of the factories stopped making about two weeks ago. Milk has shrunk worse than it was ever before known to do, and buyers realize that very little more stock will pass through their hands from primary points. The conditions which prevail at Utica are practically the same as prevail elsewhere and the indications are that cheese will advance rapidly very shortly.

Flour continued its price yesterday, although the market was very strong and the demand was heavy. Pittsburgh wholesalers are now selling flour at 15 cents a barrel less than the Minneapolis mills, a condition which is due to fortunate purchases made before the present price was established. How long this will last, with wheat at $1 14, is something none can tell. The action of the wheat market yesterday was an indication that flour prices will have no advance materially in the near future, unless there is a decided break.

Receipts of fruit and produce yesterday were light and were as follows: Apples 9 cars, making 115; bananas 6 cars, making 21; cabbage 5 cars, making 81; grapes 2 cars, making 29; pears 2 cars, making 15; potatoes 8 cars, making 115; miscellaneous 3 cars, making 9.

HAY AND GRAIN.

Receipts of hay and grain yesterday were all over the Pennsylvania lines, with the exception of three cars on the Baltimore & Ohio. They were as follows: Pennsylvania lines, 78 cars hay, 16 cars oats, 4 cars rye, 2 cars corn, 1 car straw, 1 car feed; Pittsburgh & Lake Erie, none; Baltimore & Ohio, 1 car hay, 1 car corn, 1 car straw.

The hay and grain market showed a lively trade yesterday, but there were no changes in quotations. The receipts were comparatively light, with the exception of a heavy run of hay on the Pennsylvania lines. Much of it was of good quality and found ready takers at full quotations. The supply of No. 1 timothy is increasing, evidencing that most of the poorer qualities have been put on the market. The corn situation is about the same as it was. Old corn is in great demand and new corn is selling around 50 cents, with plenty of it coming in to supply the demand. New yellow car is being received and is in excellent condition. It is thought this week will find it moving in rapidly.

MILLING DEMAND GAVE STRENGTH TO WHEAT

Corn Is Down a Half Cent, While Oats and Provisions Are Also Weaker.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

CHICAGO, Nov. 10.—Improved demand from millers caused strength in wheat today. Compared with last night's figures December wheat closed ⅝@¾c up. May is up ¼c. Corn is down ½@¾c. Oats are off ⅝@½c, and provisions ⅞@20c.

The wheat market was comparatively steady at the opening, the effect of rain or snow in many parts of the southwest being offset by a much smaller movement in the northwest and by higher prices in foreign grain markets. Initial quotations on December were unchanged at $1 13⅝. May was unchanged to ⅛c lower at $1 12⅝@1 13⅝. For a time the market was rather quiet, there being a small demand from pit traders and fair buying by commission houses. There was some selling on reports of a break in the drought southwest, but strength of corn restricted offerings. Toward the middle of the session the market became strong in sympathy with bullish conditions in the northwest. At Minneapolis an excellent cash demand was reported and a considerable improvement in milling demand was noted. In the southwest also the demand from millers was urgent. $1 06 a bushel being paid for No. 3 hard wheat in Kansas City. The high point on the market was reached at $1 14⅛. May sold up to $1 13⅝. During the last hour of trading the market lost much of its strength as a result of selling due to a break in corn prices. The close, however, was firm, final quotations on December being at $1 13⅝@1 13⅞. May closed at $1 13⅝. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 41,100 bushels. Primary receipts were 812,300 bushels, compared with 1,029,100 bushels a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 618 cars, against 982 cars last week and 941 cars a year ago.

Active covering by shorts caused a strong tone in the corn market early in the day. The demand was mainly for the December option. The scare was rather remarkable in face of receipts considerably heavier than estimated and larger than the recent average. Late in the session the market slumped badly on heavy selling induced by fears of a bearish government crop report. The market closed weak at about the lowest point of the day. December opened a shade to 16⅛c higher at 51½@52⅛c, sold between 50¾c and 52¾c and closed at 50¾c. Local receipts were 224 cars, with two of contract grade.

Oats were influenced entirely by the action of other grains, the market being firm early and becoming weak later in the day. December opened unchanged to a shade higher at 29⅜c to 29¼@29⅜c, sold off to 28¾@28¾c, and closed at the low point. Local receipts were 188 cars.

Lower prices of hogs and a slump in corn had a depressing influence on the provision market. An attempt on the part of the pit traders to break prices was mainly responsible for a moderate decline in all products. At the close January pork was down 20c at $12 62½. Lard and ribs were each off 7½c at $7 15 and $6 55, respectively.

Estimated receipts for tomorrow: Wheat, 31 cars; corn, 106 cars; oats, 81 cars; hogs, 20,000 head.

COUNTRY'S CORN CROP IS ABOVE THE AVERAGE

Total Yield Is About Two Billion and a Half Bushels—Quality Is Better.

[By Associated Press to The Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.—Preliminary returns to the chief of the bureau of statistics of the department of agriculture on the production of corn in 1904 indicate a total yield of about 2,453,000,000 bushels, or an average of 20.7 bushels per acre as compared with an average yield of 25.5 bushels per acre as finally estimated in 1903, 26.8 bushels in 1902 and a 10-year average of 24.2 bushels.

The general average as to quality is 86.2 per cent as compared with 83.1 last year, 80.7 in 1902, and 78.7 in 1901. It is estimated that about 3.6 per cent of the corn crop of 1903 was still in the hands of farmers on November 1, 1904, as compared with 5.2 per cent of the crop of 1902 in farmers' hands on November 1, 1903, 1.9 per cent of the crop of 1901 in farmers' hands on November 1, 1902, and 4.6 per cent of the crop of 1900 in farmers' hands on November 1, 1901.

Coffee and Sugar.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The market for coffee futures opened barely steady at unchanged prices to a decline of five points. But it soon developed that the market was attracting a buying movement with Wall street houses and houses with coffee exchange connections leading, and later the ruling was firm. The close was firm on smaller interior receipts at Brazilian points expected for tomorrow, at a net advance of five points on the two nearby months and of 10@15 points on later positions. Sales were 67,750 bags, including December at 6.95@7.05c, January at 7.10c, March at 7.00@7.35c, May at 7.45@7.60c, July 7.55@7.75c, August at 7.65c, September at 7.80@7.90c, October, 7.80@7.95c. NEWS FROM THE MINES.

The Pharmacist Consolidated company, whose territory is located on Bull hill, has decided to lease out its property in blocks. By doing so the officers are of the opinion that they will do better than if the entire mine was leased to one operator or worked on company account. Distributed mining operations are what they are after and in securing it they expect to see a greater tonnage of ore shipped, which means that it will not take long for their treasury to have a surplus reserve from the royalties received. The mine was the first dividend payer in the Cripple Creek camp.

The Bunker Hill and Sullivan Mining and Concentrating Company, operating silver-lead mines at Wardner, Ida., paid dividend No. 85 of $75,000 last week. This makes the total paid since January 1, $963,000, and total to date $2,106,000.

The outlook for the Le Roi mine at Rossland is considerably better than was indicated by recent pessimistic reports. Talk about the mine closing for lack of ore is abandoned. The big Rossland property is producing about 400 tons of ore a day, which is going to the Northport smelter.

The gross profits of the Camp Bird mine, located near Ouray, Col., for September, were $204,877, and the net profits $149,817.

Henry Ramsey, A. C. Elsen, M. F. Lynch and E. A. Service have arrived in New York from Tonopah and Goldfield, Nev. There is no business connected with their trip east. Speaking of Goldfield they said that after January the actual owners of the properties would operate the mines and there would be no more leasing. They said that Goldfield would produce more millionaries than any other mining camp. The Combination Mining Company's 75-ton mill will be ready in January and the Goldfield Mining Company will have produced $1,000,000 worth of ore before the end of the year. About the many questionable promotions that are being organized in the United States in which the name Goldfield figures they said that as long as a company had legal possession of the location there was a possibility of it striking pay ore. There was no telling where the ore could be found.

The Metal Market.

NEW YORK, Nov. 10.—The London tin market underwent a partial reaction, closing at £131 17s 6d for spot, and £121 10s for futures. Locally, the market continued quiet with outside prices a shade lower in sympathy with the foreign decline, the range being from $28.87½@29.05. Copper was higher in London, closing at £64 3s for spot and £64 15s for futures. Locally demand is said to be excellent and with supplies not abundant, apparently, the market showed a very firm tone. Some of the largest producers are quoting lake at from $14.00 to $14 12½, and general quotations range from $14.00 to $14.25. Electrolytic is held at $14.00@14 12½; casting

RAILROAD OFFICIALS HOLDING CONFERENCES

Important Features of Operation Were the Subjects Under Consideration.

Several railroad meetings were held yesterday, all of which directly bear on the future welfare of this district. Baltimore & Ohio men held a time-card meeting, the Pennsylvania railroad officials conferred on traffic matters, the board of directors of the Pennsylvania Company, the lines west, considered a plan to merge the Vandalia. The Baltimore & Ohio time-card meeting will complete arrangements for the fall schedule. It has been recommended that the through service between Pittsburgh and St. Louis be continued after the close of the world's fair. The special train put into service on account of the fair leaves the Water street station at 1:30 p. m. If the train is not run through to St. Louis with the new schedule, it will go as far as Cincinnati. At the transportation meeting of the Pennsylvania railroad were W. W. Atterbury, general manager; G. W. Creighton, general superintendent of the Pittsburgh division, and M. Trump, general superintendent of transportation. The meeting was to consider equipment and the facilities for handling freight. The plan for reorganizing the Vandalia system will be the formation of a new company at a capitalization of about $35,000,000. The new company will be controlled by the Pennsylvania lines. The stockholders will vote on the proposition December 15.

B. & O. in Good Shape.

J. H. Maddy, one of the best-known special agents of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, spent yesterday in Pittsburgh. Speaking of the Baltimore & Ohio's facilities for handling traffic this year, he said: "The company was never in better shape to handle winter business than it is this year. We have plenty of cars, a large number of new engines and additional trackage on all parts of the system that will make it possible to handle a big increased business as compared with last year. The officials are confident that the road will not suffer from the lack of equipment which hampered the train movements so much in recent years. That the business will pick up there is no doubt in the minds of the management. There has been a steady increase for the past few months and the Baltimore & Ohio is getting its share of the business."

Railroad Notes.

G. L. Potter, third vice president of the Baltimore & Ohio, spent yesterday in Pittsburgh.

The steel rail men, almost with one accord, are predicting heavy buying of steel rails before this year is out.

J. E. Muhlfield, superintendent of motive power of the Baltimore & Ohio, passed through last night on his way west.

Henry E. Waltermire, ticket agent of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul, with headquarters in Milwaukee, spent yesterday in the city.

The fast mail train on the Pennsylvania railroad made the run Wednesday between Herrdsburg and Altoona, 131 miles, in 133 minutes. This was an average of a mile a minute and in some places over 70 miles and hour were pulled off.

IN THE OIL FIELDS.

The advance in the credit balance market yesterday was of more importance to operators and producers than field development. It can scarcely be said that it came as a surprise, for the movement has been anticipated for some time. When the purchasing agency opened for business yesterday morning the new quotations posted showed an advance of 4 cents for crude of the Pennsylvania grade, and 2 cents advance for the Trenton rock grades. The quotation for Pennsylvania credit balances is now $1 60, North Lima $1 07, and South Lima and Indiana $1 02. While the advance is very gratifying, the prices quoted are considerably short of what they were for the corresponding period last year. On the same day last year the prices quoted for the same grades were as follows: Pennsylvania $1 77, North Lima $1 32, and South Lima and Indiana $1 27.

The South Penn company has completed and shot its No. 4 on the J. B. Wyatt farm, on Maggoty run, Liberty district, Marshall county, and has better than the late average of wells in that district. It was given a 50-quart shot and produced 90 barrels the ensuing 16 hours. On the east side of the Folsom district, in Harrison county, the same company's No. 8 on the M. F. Dye farm increased its production to 60 barrels the second 24 hours after it was drilled into the Gordon pay.

In the Smithfield district, Wetzel county, the South Penn has drilled its test on the E. J. Stout farm into the top of the Gordon and has developed some gas. In the same district, Carnahan & Co. have drilled their second test on the L. E. Cain farm into the top of the same formation and have a gas pressure. In the Mannington district, Marion county, the South Penn has tubed and will put its No. 6 on the B. F. Conway farm to pumping. It will make a light producer.

In the Burning Springs district, Wirt county, Roberts Bros. have drilled their No. 56 on the Rathbone oil tract through the second Cow Run sand and have a 5-barrel pumper at a depth of 511 feet. In the Turkey Foot extension, Hancock county, the Freshwater Oil Company has completed its second test on the M. A. Freshwater farm and has a duster. In the same district, I. S. Swaney has completed a second test on his own farm and has a show for a light pumper, not good for more than 4 barrels a day.

In the Woodsfield district, on the Ohio side, in Monroe county, the Southern Oil Company has a very pleasant surprise at its test on the Sebastian Brooks farm. When drilled into the Big Lime some time ago it proved a strong gasser, but the pressure having weakened, they decided to drill it deeper and found a pay and now have a 20-barrel producer. This test is 400 feet west of the No. 1 on the Robert Cooper farm. This find will be the incentive for drilling other tests in that locality. In the Reys Run district, Washington county, D. A. Dye & Co. have completed their test on the G. M. Lenington farm and have a show for a light pumper in the Big Injun sand.

In the Wolf Creek district, the Pure Oil Producing Company has completed its No. 51 on the H. H. Greenlee farm and the well produced 175 barrels the first 24 hours. This is the largest shallow sand producer that has been found in that district for several months. In the Lowell district, in the same county, Henne & Co. have drilled in their No. 5 on the John Weppler farm and have a show for a 15-barrel producer. In the same district, Carner & Co. have drilled in their test on the John Wentz farm and have a show for a nice producer. In the Payne district, S. B. Longfellow has completed his test on the Frank Straw farm and has a show for a light pumper in the Cow Run sand. In the same district, Smith & Kerr have drilled their test on the J. Rheimschneider farm through the Cow Run and Keener sands and have a duster. In the same district, S. R. Sharp has completed his No. 5 on the Wilson Martin farm and has a show for an 8 or 10-barrel pumper in the Keener sand. In the Chester Hill district, in Morgan county, H. E. Kessler & Co. have completed No. 12 on the Martha Scott farm and have a 3-barrel pumper. South of Burgettstown, Washington county, Pa., R. G. Gillespie has completed his test on the Mary E. Welch farm and has a duster.

SCHOOL TEACHERS' HOME.

United States Senator Proctor Gives Liberally Towards Establishment of Such a Charity.

RUTLAND, VT., Nov. 10.—(Special.)—United States Senator Redfield Proctor announced today he would give $10,000 in cash and the house in this city, in which he was born, valued at $10,000, for the establishment of a home for indigent and worthy public school teachers who have passed the age of usefulness.

It is probable the sum offered by Senator Proctor will be combined with the funds of $30,000 left by Lucy Ruggles of Bennington, in the care of Assistant Secretary of the Navy Charles H. Darling, for the same purpose, and that an additional amount will be appropriated by the state of Vermont.

Coal and Coke Shipments.

Shipments of coal and coke originating on the Pennsylvania railroad east of Pittsburgh and Erie for the week ending November 5, aggregated 814,469 tons. The amount of anthracite coal was 75,989 tons, bituminous, 55,857 tons, and coke, 180,543 tons. So far this year the haulage has been 3,770,061 tons of anthracite, 22,788,364 tons bituminous and 7,107,619 tons of coke. This is about 2,000,000 tons less tonnage than for the same period of last year.

Mrs. Weisslitz, president of the German Womans' Club of Buffalo, N. Y., after doctoring for two years, was finally cured of her kidney trouble by the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Of all the diseases known with which the female organism is afflicted, kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless prompt and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Mrs. Pinkham, early in her career, gave careful study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—made sure that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was certain to control that dreaded disease, woman's kidney troubles. The Vegetable Compound acts in harmony with the laws that govern the entire female system, and while there are many so called remedies for kidney troubles, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women.

Read What Mrs. Weisslitz Says.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For two years my life was simply a burden, I suffered so with female troubles, and pains across my back and loins. The doctor told me that I had kidney troubles and prescribed for me. For three months I took his medicines, but grew steadily worse. My husband then advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and brought home a bottle. It is the greatest blessing ever brought to our home. Within three months I was a changed woman. My pain had disappeared, my complexion became clear, my eyes bright, and my entire system in good shape."—MRS. PAULA WEISSLITZ, 176 Seneca St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Proof that Kidney Trouble can be Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I feel very thankful to you for the good your medicine has done me. I had doctored for years and was steadily growing worse. I had trouble with my kidneys, and two doctors told me I had Bright's disease; also had falling of the womb, and could not walk a block at a time. My back and head ached all the time, and I was so nervous I could not sleep; had hysteria and fainting spells, was tired all the time, had such a pain in my left side that I could hardly stand at times without putting my foot on something.

"I doctored with several good doctors, but they did not help me any. I took, in all, twelve bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, five boxes of Liver Pills, and used three packages of Sanative Wash, and feel like a new woman, can eat and sleep well, do all my own work, and can walk two miles without feeling over tired. The doctors tell me that my kidneys are all right now. I am so happy to be well, and I feel that I owe it all to your medicine."—MRS. OPAL STRONG, Dalton, Mass.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address Lynn, Mass.
